Rocky waters for Jubilee?

Departure may leave legal mess in wake

BY MARY G. SEILEY
If Alpha Gulf Coast unhook its Jubilee barge from its local moorings, it'll leave in its wake troubled legal waters: Hancock County has been the scene of around 30 lawsuits against the local gaming operation's owners.

breach of contract from creditors in several states. Some of the cases are pending, several have resulted in default judgments against the Jubilee, and others have been settled out of court.

Trailers may be booted

Hancock County officials may be tugging at Jubilee's coat-tails to keep the casino barge in place, but they also want to boot three Jubilee trailers from their Lakeshore locale.

The county Planning Commission has ordered the trailers removed, saying they violate

Is it coming?

Legal problems involving the Jubilee Casino have left in doubt the planned swap of the Jubilee with the Cotton Club (above), currently moored in Greenville, Miss. The Jubilee owes over $700,000 in past due taxes to county and tax agencies, and still faces nearly 30 lawsuits. The sale involving the Jubilee parent company, Alpha Corp., and the Cotton Club has not yet been finalized.

No budget solution reached in Waveland

BY RICHARD MEEK
Waveland city officials huddled for over an hour Friday morning with the city accountant in an attempt to understand, and possibly revise, the proposed 1995-96 budget.

Although several ideas were discussed, the aldermen and mayor emerged with no change to a budget that calls for the city to use nearly $600,000 of its cash reserve to pay for its $6.2 million of expenses.

However, the aldermen did agree that the city needed to quit looking at ways of cutting expenses and find new revenue sources.

"We need to look at raising revenues," Alderman Jay Fleuriet said. "That's what we have to do."

The meeting culminated a week of bickering among the aldermen and mayor John Mason that began when the Sea Coast Echo first reported last Sunday the budget recently adopted included depleting the city's cash reserves by nearly 75 percent. Two of the aldermen said they were not aware the city's surplus was being used, and if they had known, they would not have adopted the proposed budget.

The budget calls for projected revenues of $5.6 million, and expenses of $6.2 million, with the shortfall being made up by dipping into the city's $839,000 bankroll. However, alderman Tommy Longo said he "was not aware" the budget he approved included the depletion of cash on hand.

"The problem I have is that it's not good business practice," Longo said.

Although he was noncommittal on whether or not he would have approved the budget knowing over $590,000 of the city's reserves were being used, Longo did say he "would have looked at other avenues" before voting.

When asked whether he would have approved the budget with the information he now knows, Fleuriet said "absolutely not."

"It was never alluded to," he said. "This is a perfect example of no information (between the aldermen and administration). I would have apposed it."

Bay teacher honored nationally

BY ED LEPOMA
Debbye Melaney has opened up new worlds for her students at North Bay Elementary, and her unique teaching skills haven't gone unnoticed.

Melaney was one of 54 elementary and secondary school teachers honored in Washington, D.C. last month by Sallie Mae, the country's leading funding source for higher education loans.

Melaney was the state's Sallie Mae First Class Teacher Award winner chosen from all applications submitted by public and private schools in Mississippi.

"Kim Stasny, our principal nominated me in April, then our superintendent, Paul Tisdale, called to tell her in July that I was selected, then (Stasny) notified me.

"I was thrilled," Melaney said. "It was a complete surprise."

Melaney came to teach at North Bay Elementary in Bay St. Louis by chance, and she drives in every day from Ocean Springs.

"We moved to Ocean Springs from Ohio about eight years ago when my husband, Charles accepted a job in Gulfport," she said. Daughter Erin was about four then, and when her daughter started school, Melaney decided to return to school too.

She enrolled at Gulf Coast Community College in Gautier, and began pursuing a teaching degree. For the last two years, she attended the University of Southern Mississippi's Long Beach campus.

In October of 1993, Melaney was student teaching when she learned of a teaching vacancy at North Bay Elementary.

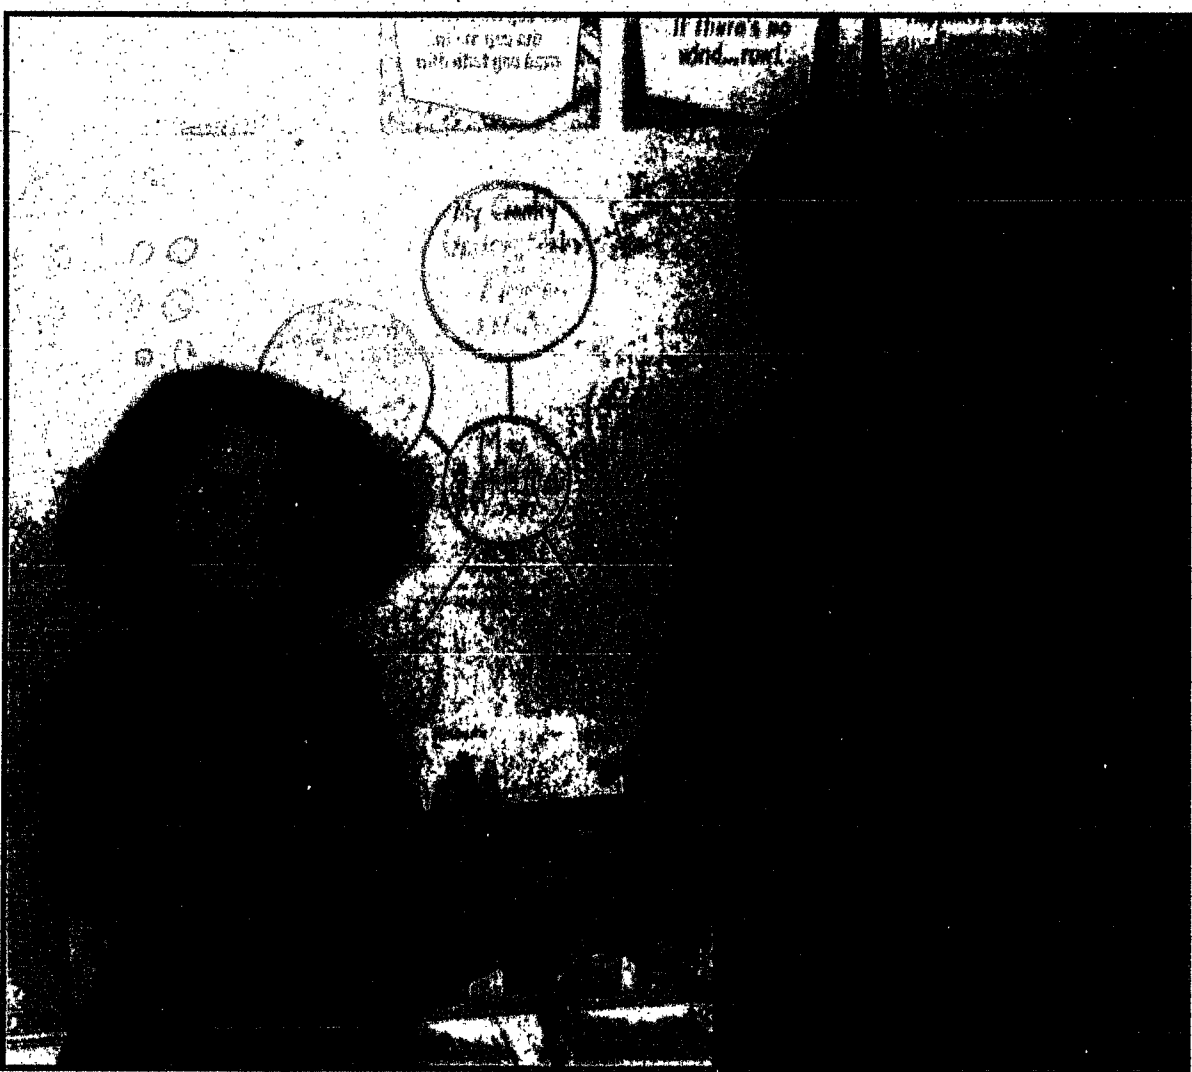

"It was a unique opportunity," said Melaney. "They were looking for someone to teach a non-graded, multi-age primary unit."

In lay terms, the school was looking for someone to teach all subjects to students who were placed in this special program by their parents. The students range from six to nine years of age, and come from first through third grades.

"We teach all subjects, and everyone progresses at their own level," she explained.

The teacher Melaney was hired to fill in for never returned, and she was offered a full-time job, and accepted two months later. That following

Story hour

"Friendly Ghosts" will be the theme of the children's story hour at the Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Library-Wednesday, Oct. 18, at 10:30 a.m.

Bobby Bear and the Friendly Ghost, What's Left? and Through the Magic Mirror are books to be read. Children will see a finger play and a movie and make ghosts. Refreshments will be served.

Weekly story hours are held September through May. Programs last approximately one hour.

The Kiln Library hosts a story hour every other Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. These programs last approximately 30 minutes, and refreshments are served.

Programs and activities are designed for pre-school-age children three to five years old who are not part of a nursery or pre-school group.

For information, contact Winnie Vasquez, Bay St. Louis Library, 467-5282; or Sandra Ladner, Kiln Library, 255-1724.

REFLECTIONS ON LIFE

By Father Jerome LeDoux, SVD

Giving each other to God

As usual, arriving shortly after seriously ill hospital patients are asleep for the night, I found my mother in a very deep slumber. Her less than 90 pounds were in evidence, as was her overall weakness and lack of energy.
Busy about their tasks, two nurses traded greetings and pleasant talk with me. "She's a sweet patient," one said just as the family doctor, Charles Ross Jr., walked in.
Dr. Ross is to the family what his father was when I was a child: a family doctor with knowledge, wisdom and compassion. With a gentle, bass voice he began to describe my mother's condition: "The toes of her left foot are necrotic."
"You don't mean gangrenous, do you?" I asked.
"I would not call it gangrene yet," he hesitated.
His words sent a chill over me and merely confirmed what has been obvious for some months.

Weighed down by her 94 years and two months, by over a decade of Alzheimer's affliction, and by many episodes of infection, her body was waning.
Shortly after Dr. Ross and the nurses left, I sat on my mother's right side to reach her only good ear: the right ear. I awakened her in my accustomed fashion, singing her favorite hymns, beginning with "Amazing Grace."
Her eyes opened a bit immediately and she lifted her head slightly. Keeping her head off the pillow with my left hand, I sang into her good ear. Her eyes remained open with a squint and strained to recognize the voice of her son.
A topic of frequent discussion is whether at least some Alzheimer's patients can recognize people who have been close to them, but simply cannot express their recognition.
I am convinced that many, if not most, Alzheimer's patients, can indeed recognize people dear to them, albeit dimly, but cannot communicate that they do know them.

"What a Friend We Have in Jesus" was the next selection, followed by "He Looked Beyond My Fault." All the while, mother's eyes searched, inquired, wondered, her head moving in cadence from time to time.
Finally, I launched into her all-time favorite, "His Eye Is on the Sparrow," by this time singing more clearly and with greater force. With deep, grateful satisfaction, I once again saw her "patented" reaction to her special song.
Her eyes widened as she became animated, turning her head to get a better view of me. Her lips, which no longer speak words, quivered and strained to form sounds and combinations which her brain cannot clearly command.

Yet, she moved her head up and down in cadence with the melody and movement of her song. There she was, severely hampered by an insidious, lethal disease, yet rising one more time and jamming with the One whose eye is on the sparrow.
By that time, she was tiring, and, as I gently released her hand, she slipped back into a deep sleep, leaving me to wonder what was best for her as a human being, a Christian.
"The toes of her left foot are necrotic, and there is some discoloration on her right foot," kept coming back to me.
Inevitably, the conviction which must eventually seize all believers took hold of me: what is best for my mother's peace and well-being is that I must give her back to God. This is our continuing task in life: to give each other back to God.

Bay, Waveland, Pass set elections on Mississippi Power franchises

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Special elections have been set in Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Pass Christian for voter action on proposed 25-year franchises for Mississippi Power Co.

Officials in the three-area cities adopted ordinances granting the franchises, effective in October 1996. But the action requires citizen approval at the polls.

While it initially appeared to be a non-controversial matter, the recent franchise proposal prompted some municipal officials to question the wisdom, and the timing, of the long-term contracts.

Representatives of some of the 54 cities across the state dealing with the same proposal met last week to hash out the details.

Tuesday, Bay St. Louis Mayor Eddie Favre said the big question at last week's meeting in Hattiesburg had been over the proposed 25-year span of the franchises. That would be a legitimate question for any city contemplating going into the electricity business, said Favre.

since the franchises bar competition, from city utility operations.

He added, however, it's highly unlikely the City of Bay St. Louis would add electrical service to its utility operations in the foreseeable future. "I don't see us ever getting into the electricity business," said Favre. Private competition is not barred by the franchises.

The franchises award city coffers 3 percent of the utility's revenues, rather than the 2 percent rebate required by law. Favre said some city leaders questioned whether they should force an even higher rate than Mississippi Power is offering.

Still, he recommended approving the extended relationship, and council agreed.

Before final action, however, two power company representatives were quizzed at length by council President Tad Black on some details.

Black said he'd like to see stricter controls on the power company's tree-trimming practices, to keep the utility from over-pruning to cut costs of frequent pruning.

Although Black suggested such controls be written into the proposed franchise, he settled with assurances from utility representatives that they are sensitive to area officials' concerns over tree-trimming. "We don't want to offend anyone," said the utility's representative Chuck Ueltschey.

Favre and City Attorney John Scafide said a meeting had been held earlier Tuesday with city tree advisor Philip Remel to talk about beefing up the city's tree protection ordinance. The mayor said he'd asked Remel to devise some regulations on pruning.

On another matter, Black asked how the city could get out of the franchise if it desired in future years.

Problems that may arise, he was advised, could be addressed through the Public Service Commission or through the courts.

Even with city approval, voters must endorse the pacts before they are effective—special elections will be held in each city on Nov. 7, coinciding with the general election.

In Bay St. Louis, that means voters wishing to participate in the franchise election will have to cast ballots at city precincts, which are different from the county precincts used in the general elections.

Mississippi Power has promised to pick up the tab for all costs associated with the election, as well as advertising to ensure the public knows about the special voting procedure.

Three arrested in two drug busts

BY RICHARD MEEK
Three people were arrested in two separate drug busts Thursday.

Narcotics Drug Task Force Director Terry Eley said Albert Spandoi and Endora Bass of Bay St. Louis were arrested Thursday afternoon at Spandoi's residence at 4036 Indian St. Spandoi, 71, was charged with possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute. Spandoi was allegedly in possession of more than one ounce but less than one kilo of marijuana, according to Eley. He placed the street value at approximately $1,000.

Spandoi was also charged with possession of a Class 3 narcotic, Zanax. He is being held on a $10,000 bond at the Hancock County Justice Facility.

Bass was arrested with Spandoi and being held on "reasonable bond," according to Eley. The arresting officers were Brett Lander of the Waveland Police Department, Matt Karl of the Hancock County Sheriff's Office and Eley. Eley is the investigating officer.

He said the arrests were made after a tip from a "concerned citizen."

Alyman Curry of 209 Hart St. in Waveland was arrested late Thursday night and charged with possession of cocaine. He was arrested at the corner of Hurley and Hart streets in Waveland, according to Eley.

According to Eley, Waveland officer Mike Hardy was on routine patrol when he detected the smell of marijuana coming from a group of men at the corner of Hurley and Hart streets. Assisting Hardy in the arrest were Bill Roseling, C.J. Lick, Jerry Beaugez and Kevin McIntosh of the Waveland Police Department.

Curry, 21, is being held on $2,000 bond.

Court dates are pending for all three.

'Conversation 95' set Sunday

A unique forum entitled, "Conversation 95" is scheduled Sunday, Oct. 15 at Martin Luther King Jr. Park in Bay St. Louis.

Organizer Danin M. Benoit said, "It will be an Oprah Winfrey-type conversation between invited guests and members from the audience."

The event begins at 1 p.m., and participants include: representatives of First Baptist Church, Morning Star, Power House, and Mount Chapel.

Special guests include Andrew H. Nash with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Curtis Davis, representing the Nation of Islam, and Terry Eley of the local police department.

The Community Youth Choir will be performing, as well as the Pass Christian Drill Team, Benoit said.

Benoit said he formed "The Committee of Conversation 95" to bring private citizens and youth together to discuss a range of topics including: the importance of voter registration; what citizens can do to improve the educational system; the importance of adopt-a-child programs, and other topics.

Other members of the committee include: Kevin Gallo-way, Robin Williams, Kevin Benoit, Kim Anacaya, Dina Benoit, Sandra Price, Charles Johnson and Citronella Davis.

SADD wants to paint town red

National Red Ribbon Week is Oct. 23-27 this year, and area students will be asking the business community for help in keeping our communities drug free.

Red Ribbon Week, a national campaign for the awareness and education of alcohol and drug abuse prevention, originated when Drug Enforcement Administration Agent Enrique Camerna was murdered by drug traffickers in 1985.

Angered by the killing and destruction caused by alcohol and other drugs in America, the National Family Partnership and affiliated non-profit organizations began wearing red ribbons as a symbol of their commitment to a healthy, drug free lifestyle — no use of illegal drugs and no illegal use of legal drugs.

NorthShore Psychiatric Hospital, with the assistance of SADD representatives of the Bay St. Louis-Waveland School System, will be asking local businesses this week for their support.

They will be asking each business for a $10 donation, which will provide that business with a red ribbon to display during Red Ribbon Week.

Proceeds from the sale will be donated to Hope Haven of Hancock County, a shelter for needy children.

The campaign is endorsed by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce as well as by Mayor Eddie Favre of Bay St. Louis and Mayor John Mason of Waveland and is a community service project sponsored by NorthShore Psychiatric Hospital.

For more information or to request a red ribbon for your business or home, contact Karen Hector at 467-4675.

Chiropractic Found More Effective than Hospital Care in 3-Year British Study Beneficial effect of chiropractic on pain particularly clear

The outcome of a medical research council trial at the Medical College of St. Bartholomew's Hospital in London, England, comparing chiropractic with conventional hospital treatment for low back pain, reported that those patients treated by chiropractic "derived more benefit and long term satisfaction than those treated by hospitals."

The results of the study, "Randomized comparison of chiropractic and hospital out-patient management for low back pain: results from extended follow-up", were published in the August 4, 1995 British Medical Journal.

Professor Thomas Meade and colleagues at the Epidemiology and Medical Care Unit, using the Oswestry questionnaire, compared the progress of 741 low back pain patients (undergoing either chiropractic or hospital treatment) for levels of pain, daily activity, and satisfaction with their treatment. The number revealed that during three years, 29 percent more improved under chiropractic care than those treated by hospital care. "The beneficial effect of chiropractic on pain was particularly clear," the authors stated.

Chiropractic patients also expressed greater general satisfaction with their treatment, slept better and were able to sit for longer periods. The study further found that, in general, chiropractic patients experienced an improved quality of life following treatment.

This study is a follow-up of the 1990 Medical et al. study. At the time of the 1990 report, not all the 741 patients (18-64) had been in trial for more than six months. The 1995 three-year follow-up study presents the full results for all those patients for which data was available.

"The medical research council trial shows that patients with back pain can expect better results from their local chiropractor than from their local hospital," says Ian Hutchison, president of the British Chiropractic Association. "Fortunately, the value of chiropractic is being increasingly recognized and I hope that following the trial results, NHS (National Health Service) purchasers and chiropractors can now arrange for more patients to benefit from chiropractic treatments," he said.

The scores of the new study on pain intensity before treatment and the various follow-up periods show significant improvements in pain "in those treated by chiropractic, including the changes early on... that is, at six months, when the proportions returning questionnaires were high."

The authors noted that the other scores (personal care, lifting, walking, standing, sex life and traveling) "nearly all improved more in the patients treated with chiropractic, though most of the differences were small compared with the differences for pain."

The authors said they believed there is now more support for the need for "astidious" trials focusing on "specific components of management and on the feasibility," and that trial's results show that chiropractic has a valuable part to play in the management of low back pain.

The study comes close on the heels of the recommendations of the British back pain guidelines developed by the Clinical Standards Advisory Group, published as Back Pain and Epidemiology and Cost of Back Pain. Those guidelines recommend that patients should not be put on waiting lists for hospital appointments, as that leads to increased time off work and disability. The British guidelines say that back patients should be seen earlier in the community by chiropractors, osteopaths and physiotherapists skilled in manipulation.

After three years, the percentage of patients who felt their treatment had helped their back pain:

Treatment	Helped	Didn't Help
Chiropractic Treatment	82%	18%
Hospital Treatment	63%	37%

"CUEVAS' QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

I think I can say that I did something Wednesday evening not too many people have experienced. I have been nursing a few eggplants during the dry season in our garden.

As I was watering them with a spray, in drops a hummingbird for a shower. He was just standing still with the spray falling on him, and then he landed on the fence.

I continued to spray above him as he lifted one wing then the other and would shake some and flap his wings for a minute or so.

I let him sit on the fence while I continued to water the plants. After he ruffled his feathers a bit he moved back into the spray of water, I guess for a rinse. This went on for a minute or so, and finally he took off for a tree in a neighbor's yard.

As I have mentioned before, Jane and I enjoy watching the hummingbirds use the feeders. I am glad there are several others in the neighborhood who put out feeders, too.

While on neighborhood happenings, I need to tell you this one.

As I was finishing dressing Thursday morning, Jane came running in to tell me I would not believe what she had just witnessed.

She told me she noticed a large grey squirrel chasing a smaller one in a tree across the street.

She thought they were just playing until the larger squirrel caught the smaller one and gave him a death bite to a shoulder.

She gathered the dead squirrel, and I checked him and saw that he was a very young male.

Apparently the larger squirrel was a male, and he was eliminating competition.

I could also be nature's way of controlling overpopulation in the animal kingdom.

THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

A Weekly Editorial From Mississippi Economic Council

The American dream lives on

That's the good news that erupted out of a place called Camden Yard a few days ago. The eruption came as thousands of baseball fans stood and cheered a young man who has played more consecutive baseball games than any other man in the history of the game.

Cal Ripkin Jr., the now-legendary shortstop of the Baltimore Orioles, had just broken the games-played record of the immortal Lou Gehrig, the man whose record, they said a half century ago, would never be broken.

Cal Ripkin Jr. has been going to work in an Orioles uniform every day for almost 14 years now, never missing a game in all that time. The new record is 2,131 games without an absence; the Gehrig record, from his days as a New York Yankee, was 2,130.

Ironically it is that the two men are so much alike — quiet, unassuming, gentlemen, lovers of the game.

Here's the "American Dream." Work hard, practice discipline, strive to be the best you can be, be considerate of others, and success will come your way.

Cal Ripkin Jr. stood in front of the cheering thousands on the evening of his amazing feat and gave credit for his success to four persons — his dad, his mom, a teammate, and his wife.

Out of Oriole Park at Camden Yard in Baltimore, Maryland, comes a new American hero — an all-American boy who reminds us that the American dream lives on.

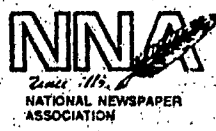

It takes a little effort NOT to throw our litter out the window and so much effort and expense to pick it up again.

Diamondhead resident comments on Appeals Court decision

Dear Editor:

At last the property owners of Fairway Estates in Diamondhead are vindicated.

On Oct. 3, 1995, the Mississippi Court of Appeals reversed the Hancock County Chancery Court's decision permitting golf carts (motorcycles, motorbikes and small vehicles), to use the emergency access right-of-way reserved at the west end cul-de-sac of Fairway Drive.

Eight of the nine presiding Appeals Court judges concurred, the ninth did not participate, for an overwhelming victory for the people of Fairway Estates versus the Property Owners Association.

In the Appeals Court review the court found that "the clear intention of the developer was to provide the owners of lots along Fairway Drive a street that would have traffic limited primarily to those persons having business on the street."

The original layout of the subdivision provided for a dead-end street with a cul-de-sac at the end. This was a conscious choice since the developers could have platted Fairway Drive to connect with the through-street in the adjacent subdivision" (at the time of development).

The emergency access was added to the plat only because the regulatory authorities of the county required it to approve construction of the subdivision.

The court went on to say, "Had county officials not insisted on the emergency way over the strip, no public right at all would have existed over the property in question."

Many friends and neighbors of the residents of Fairway

Estates living elsewhere in Diamondhead believe, wrongly, that this suit is about golf carts.

This suit has never been about golf carts. It is about property rights. It is about getting what we bargained and paid for when we purchased a lot on a dead end cul-de-sac.

It is about standing up for a right guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, that property rights cannot be taken away without due process.

According to a former board member of the POA, at least $100,000 in dues have been spent by the POA on this law suit against the property owners of Fairway Estates.

All this money for a questionable short-cut to the golf course when there are golf paths on either side of Fairway Drive.

Now that Glen Eagle Subdivision is open, golfers can also use this through-road from Diamondhead Drive North to Golf Club Drive and the club. With this new road there are now three ways for a golf cart to get to the club without violating the platted cul-de-sac or driving on a county road.

This waste of property owners' dues, just to punish a few for standing up for their rights under the constitution is a disgrace.

The question that should be asked of the POA: Why have they chosen to spend the association's limited funds in an attempt to take away individual member property rights? Do you want your dues spent in this reckless manner?

FROM THE STATE AUDITOR

GENERAL

Q May an employee injured on the job and not working receive pay for accrued sick leave and/or personal leave at the same time he/she is receiving workers' compensation benefits?

A Yes, until accrued sick leave and personal leave are exhausted. Then the regular salary or pay would stop. (Attorney General's opinion to Trosclair dated Feb. 24, 1994)

Q May a county or municipality continue to pay health and life insurance premiums for an employee who has exhausted all his/her sick leave and personal leave and who is on extended leave without pay due to illness or an injury on the job?

A Yes. (Attorney General's opinion to Gamble dated April 6, 1995)

Q Has the Social Security Administration (SSA) approved a provision allowing election workers to earn up to $1,000 per calendar year without paying social security tax on the earnings?

A Yes, retroactive to Jan. 1, 1995. (This was approved by SSA on Aug. 23, 1995, per State Retirement System personnel.)

Q If a bail bond covers more than one case, and a defendant is convicted on one or more of the cases, how many 2% bond fees are collected?

A Only one. (Section 83-39-31)

EYES ON MISSISSIPPI

By Bill Minor

Republicans at odds over split of Legislative Trust

There's squabbling in the ranks of the Republicans in the Mississippi House and, not surprisingly, it's over how to divide the spoils of the GOP's recent success.

Something new has come on the political scene up at the state Legislature. It's called the Mississippi Legislative Trust, formed by the Republicans.

It really should be called the Republican Legislative Trust because GOP lawmakers or prospective GOP legislators are the only ones who will benefit from the goodies the Trust will dispense. Besides, the state Republican headquarters in Jackson is listed as the domicile for its incorporation.

To prime the pump for the trust, it has been given a pledge of $100,000 from the Republican National Committee by national chairman Haley Barbour. Other contributions, naturally, will be solicited by experienced Republican fund raisers.

Largely the pet idea of House Republican members, the Trust is allegedly not the birth of a GOP caucus in the House. At least that's the view of Rep. Mike Chaney (R) of Vicksburg, who was one of those in on the creation of the group.

But some of the GOP House members have already been flexing their new-found muscle in getting more say-so in running the House, including control of the speakership.

A group of GOP House members, including Chaney, recently met with House Speaker Tim Ford and served notice that they may not support him for re-election for speaker if he doesn't go along with several things they want.

One is to dump Rep. Robert Clark (D) of Ebenezer, as Speaker Pro Tem and putting a Republican in the number two House slot.

Since Clark is the highest ranking black state legislator, his removal is bound to create sparks.

Something else the Republicans want is to change the House seniority rule that guarantees preference to senior members for slots on the two important fiscal committees — Ways and Means, and Appropriations. Any member with 12 years House experience, is assured of a seat on one of the two committees.

The seniority rule was installed originally eight years ago to give black lawmakers more clout since they tend to be kept in office by their predominantly black districts.

Apparently Ford interpreted the visit by the GOP group as an indication that one of his visitors could be bidding for his job. Chaney assured that he, for one, didn't have that in mind.

Meantime there's bickering in the GOP family over how the money coming into the Legislative Trust is going to be doled out and what the objectives of the trust are.

Rep. Tom Johnson (R) of Benton, the newest convert to the GOP who has only three years House experience, sent out a letter to all Republican members in the House telling about the $100,000 windfall for the Trust and some of the demands they are making on Ford.

But another GOP lawmaker, Rep. Ken Stribling (R) of Jackson, an eight-year veteran, has snapped back in a letter to Johnson charging that he along with Chaney and Reps. Terry Brown (R) of Columbus and Tom King (R) of Petal, were off base on how they were planning to use the money and also the goals of the Trust.

Stribling said it had been specifically agreed when the Trust was formed that it would be used only to elect new Republican members, not for incumbents and also that the Trust would not engage in "power plays."

Stribling also pounced on a statement Johnson made about not dividing House Republicans, contending that Johnson, Chaney, Brown and King had done more the past several months to divide Republicans than anything else.

So everything is not peaceful in Republican City.

BREWER'S WORLD

By Jimmie Brewer

There are a few incidents in everyone's life that remain vividly in one's memory. Making a diving catch with the bases loaded to win a World Series, sinking a 50-foot jump-shot as the buzzer sounds to win the NBA championship, running down a criminal who has just snatched an elderly lady's purse, or winning the Florida lottery on your first try. These incidents, all of which would be noteworthy, do not compare with the memory I will forever have when I smooched the queen.

Forget about Number Ten Downing Street in London where Queen Elizabeth reigns. It was not her cheeks that met my lips. It was not the Queen of Nairobi or some other third world country queen who honored me with a memory of a lifetime. No, not at all, it was much closer to home.

The place, the Diamondhead Country Club; the date, Oct. 13, 1995; the time, 9:22 p.m.; the event, a party for the Krewe of Diamondhead. The occurrence, my lips on the queen's left cheek, very close to her own glistening lips. The result, instant gratification. The later result, Mary dragging me by the collar out the front door.

I am not actually a member of the Land Krewe of Diamondhead, nor was I invited to Friday night's festivities. But, being the curious type of dude that I am, and just happening to be in the area, I decided to make an appearance. Once again, I was not disappointed. These folks out in paradise certainly know how to "whoop it up".

Seemingly hundreds of folks attended, decked out in cowboy hats, cowboy boots and cowboy apparel. For you folks who think the residents in Diamondhead are just a bunch of retired dudes and dudettes with one foot in the grave, I have news for you. These people have one foot firmly planted above the ground and the other foot buried in a pot full of fun.

Take for example the outgoing queen, Lou Lamendola, who gave me the honor of a dance. This was not your regular dance, this dudette can really shake it up. She dances like a high school prom queen. We had more body parts moving than you could shake a stick at, and it was me, not her, who was searching for oxygen when the song finally ended.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the queen. They could not have picked a more qualified lady. This dudette is the epitome of class. No other person is more deserving of royalty than her. I have known her for quite some time now, and her personality can only be described as bubbly and full of life.

Thanks for the kiss, Queen Alice Burkhardt, now go out and have a ball.

Praise for do-gooders this week goes out to the Land Krewe of Diamondhead. Peace.

"Suppose we have something happens and we have no money in the bank," he added. "You don't have to spend the money just because it's in the bank."

The unanswered question is exactly who knew the reserves were being used. City accountant Steve Dockens of Moore and Powell said it's "malarky" that the aldermen didn't know.

"I told them in a meeting," Dockens said during the week. "If they didn't know, it was not because the information was not there."

He added the aldermen have 90 days to amend the budget and "make the hard decisions they should have made in the first place."

Dockens added that Mason had called during the budget process and asked if the cash reserve could be used to balance the figures. Mason said he remembers talking to Dockens but does not recall if he informed the aldermen.

During Friday's meeting, Dockens said the cash reserve is not revenue but part of available resources.

He added the budget shows "projected disbursements" of those resources.

"Every year we've been depleting the city's reserves," Dockens said. "But it's getting to the day of reckoning when we won't have any cash reserves."

"There's nothing wrong with budgeting expenses over revenues as long as there are reserves to cover it. We've been doing this for several years."

Longo said what "scared me" is that "we're using reserve for raises. Next year we must come up with that again."

The aldermen were informed that over $200,000 could be saved if raises and insurance benefits promised to city employees were granted. The savings would be $185,000 if the city refuses the raises, but pays employees' insurance. The latter garnered the most favorable reaction from the aldermen.

Fleuriet said one of the problems the aldermen faced was that "we had the budget the same day the public did."

"It was all thrust upon us as new people," added Fleuriet, who is part of an all-new board that took office last December.

"It's a real concern for next time," he said.

Longo said the aldermen "are anxious to get projects started but we realize we cannot get it done overnight. I'm scared about spending money that won't be there next year."

Dockens reminded the aldermen that he "doesn't make decisions. I'm just giving information."

"You guys need to make the decision if you want to use that much cash reserve," he said.

Alderman Al Kingston pointed out that services do not have to be cut, only parts of the "wish lists" that each department head submitted.

The board discussed revenue raising ideas, such as an increase in property tax, the pier fee, or even the sales tax, although that would take legislative approval.

A workshop to further discuss the budget is scheduled for Monday at 6 p.m. at City Hall.

Williams hearing set

BY RICHARD MEEK

Judge John Toney, Circuit Judge in the 20th Circuit Court District which includes Madison and Rankin counties in central Mississippi, has been appointed by Mississippi Supreme Court Justice Aramis Hawkins to hear District 4 Supervisor candidate Tom Williams' petition for a new election.

The hearing is scheduled for Wednesday at 9 a.m. at the Hancock County Courthouse.

Williams is contesting the Aug. 8 primary when he finished third behind Steve Seymour and Harry Favre. Williams has leveled charges of voting irregularities and claimed that he, not Favre, should have been in an Aug. 29 runoff with Seymour.

Seymour easily defeated Favre in the runoff.

Williams, who is petitioning for a new election involving he and Seymour, initially pleaded his case to the Democratic Executive Committee, which upheld the original election results.

The general election, which pits Seymour against Republican Joey Manieri and Independent Doc Toups, is scheduled for Nov. 7.

Taylor announces $8.3 million contract for Army Ammo Plant

Mason Technologies at Stennis Space Center has been awarded an $8.3 million contract for various modifications at the Mississippi Army Ammunition Plant as an incentive to locate multiple contractors to the site, announced Congressman Gene Taylor.

Taylor said the contract, issued by the U.S. Army last week, is for Armament Retooling and Manufacturing Support Act of 1992 incentives.

In support of Defense Conversion efforts under the ARMS Act, reutilization of the Army's core competencies, facilities, equipment and critical skills will be used.

use mapping. Officials say the land use map now up for adoption will serve as the basis for the new map, although there may be numerous variations.

In recommending the comprehensive plan to City Council, the planning commission called for residential development of a portion of the newly annexed area: the undeveloped site of a controversial, proposed casino.

Ironically, the commission's meeting Wednesday, resulting in a final recommendation on the plan, drew almost no observers. Other meetings concerning the plan have attracted dozens of interested citizens.

6A-THU SEA COAST ECHO—SUNDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1995

Bay High falls to Picayune, 36-20

BY RICHARD MEEK

A haze began to grip Tiger Stadium early Friday night, but it was Picayune's Carlos Bogan who left Bay High in a fog.

Bogan ran for 205 yards and one touchdown to lead the Tide to a 36-20 victory over the Tigers in a District 7-4A contest.

"(Bogan) is a good runner and we knew he would get his yards," Bay High coach Walt Esslinger said. "We stacked everybody up where he was. We just did not make the plays when we had the chances."

The loss was the Tigers' second straight, and third in last four games. Bay High is 2-5 overall, 1-3 in district play.

"This is the hardest one to accept," Esslinger said. "I cannot point to any one thing that we did wrong."

Bay High has now given up 84 points, and yielded an average of 330 rushing yards in its last two games.

"Defensively, we are not making enough of plays in key situations," Esslinger said. "People are converting on key downs. We had that problem earlier in the year and have gone back to doing that."

Bay High finished with 261 total yards but only 84 in a second half that saw the Tigers run 18 plays, as compared to Picayune's 28.

"Picayune did a better job of keeping the ball away from us in the second half," Esslinger said. "We didn't have that many opportunities."

The Tigers spotted the Tide 16 second quarter points before a late rally pulled Bay High to within two at the half. After a scoreless first quarter, Picayune quarterback Jonathan Lott scored on a four-yard run on the second play of the second quarter and followed with a two-point pass to Jared Dickerson to give Picayune an 8-0 lead. Lott's run culminated a 50-yard, three-play drive that began with Bogan carrying 46 yards to the Tiger four on the first play.

On Bay High's ensuing possession, Esslinger inserted Wali Shabazz at quarterback in place of starter Jonathan Favre in an attempt to ignite a sputtering offense. But Rodrick Jackson stepped in front of a Shabazz pass on the drive's third play and returned it 24 yards to the Tiger one. One play later, Lott's run and Nick Wash's two-point conversion gave Picayune a 16-0 lead with 9:01 left in the first half.

"We were talking among ourselves to just stay in the game," said Bay High linebacker Richard Benton.

As if on Benton's cue, Bay High answered quickly with Favre, who returned as quarterback, throwing a 59-yard scoring pass to T.J. Hawkins at the 7:33 mark. Shabazz added the two-point conversion, and the Tigers were within eight at 16-8.

"(The touchdown pass) was the key play that kept us in it," Esslinger said. "It was a score and it came on a dramatic play."

After the defense forced a Picayune punt, Bay High marched 73 yards on its ensuing possession, with the score coming on Favre's 19-yard pass to John Favre. Jonathan Favre's two-point pass attempt was incomplete, leaving the Tigers trailing 16-14.

James Benton intercepted a Lott pass on the Tide's next possession and returned it to the Picayune nine with 2:06 left. But Jared Dickerson recorded the first of two interceptions to stop the threat.

Bay High held Picayune to 97 yards of total offense in the first half, with 87 coming on three plays. The Tide's last three possessions netted three yards and an interception.

Bay High went ahead early in the third quarter on a 59-yard drive begun and ended by Shabazz. The Tiger senior intercepted a Lott pass to give Bay High possession at its own 49, and three plays later scored on a 42-yard run that gave the Tigers a 20-16 lead with 9:19 remaining.

From that point, however, Picayune dominated, holding the Tigers to two first downs over the final 17 minutes.

Picayune took the lead for good on a 48-yard, six-play drive that ended in Dickerson's 24-yard scoring pass to Greg Walls on fourth and four. Walls made a juggling catch over Hawkins, who appeared to have excellent position on the taller Walls.

"You can't ask for any better coverage," Esslinger said. "I'll take that coverage anytime."

Nick Walsh closed the scoring on a 40-yard fake punt with six seconds remaining.

Shabazz finished with 86 yards on 21 carries. Favre was five of 16 for 102 yards with two touchdowns and one interception before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the fourth quarter.

Bay High plays winless Pass Christian Friday in the Pass.

"We have to stay together as a team, practice harder and put this behind us," Richard Benton said as he walked off into the night fog.

Aggies shoot down Pirates, 22-14

BY TRACI BONNEY

Pass Christian came oh-so-close Friday night to posting a win—or at least a tie—but a fatal pass attempt in the final seconds dashed their hopes.

The Pirates traveled to Forrest County Agricultural High School for their last road game. Awaiting them was a sea of maroon jerseys, a couple of which were filled by players weighing well over 200 pounds.

The teams were almost evenly matched on the ground, with PCHS gaining 146 yards and Forrest County netting 143. In the air, the Aggies outflowed the Pirates with 118 yards and two touchdowns, compared to Pass Christian's 47 yards and one score.

Pirate defensive coach Glenn Williams and offensive coach Otis Gates Jr. agreed Pass played better in the second half.

The Pirates held the Aggies scoreless in the first quarter, but could not stop a 15-yard scoring run by Freddie Hathorn in the first five seconds of the second quarter. Elvin Jackson added the two-point conversion to make it 8-0.

On the first play after receiving a Pirate punt, Aggie quarterback Nate Breland hit Jackson for a 54-yard TD pass. Neil Harvison's kick made it 15-0 with 8:50 to go.

Late in the half, the Aggies scored on a 17-yard pass from quarterback Matt Williams to halfback Kenny Hubbard. Harvison's kick boosted the score to 22-0 with 1:14 on the clock.

The Aggies did not score again, while the Pirates chalked up touchdowns in the third and fourth quarters.

When the Pirates kicked off to the Aggies to start the second half, Raynoid Dedeaux recovered to give Pirates possession on the Aggie 35.

Pass Christian capped an eight-play drive with a score on a 13-yard pass from Dedeaux to Orlando Hogue. A two-point pass attempt was blocked. With 7:53 left in the third quarter, it was 22-6.

The Aggies drove to the 11 on their ensuing possession and set up for a field goal, but Harvison's kick went wide right. The Pirates took over on their 20-yard line with 2:04 to go.

The third quarter ended with the Pirates at third and 10 on their own 32. In the opening play of the fourth quarter, Henry Henderson exploded around the left end and down the sideline for a 78-yard scoring run. He capped it with a two-pointer to make the score 22-14 with 11:47 in the game.

The Pirates came within 15 yards of another score with three minutes left, but the Aggies held the line.

Then, with 20 seconds left, the Pirates took possession on an Aggie punt. Pass Christian went for a Hail Mary pass, but Jackson intercepted.

Warriors scalp Rocks, 26-13

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

The Oak Grove Warriors invaded 'in between the walls' at Rock Stadium on Friday and came away with a District 7-4A win. The Warriors defeated a flat Rock-a-chaw team 26-13, using a 14-0 first half to hold off a SSC rally in the third quarter.

"We came out real flat. We can teach them all the X's and O's we can but we can't play for them," Rock coach Mario Genna said. "We cannot teach them desire and courage and that is what we lacked tonight."

The Warriors wasted little time marching toward the endzone. Robert Gillespie took the opening handoff for seven yards and an Oak Grove first down before senior Correy Gex pulled him down. Gex, playing his first game on defense at the middle linebacker, led the team in tackles with 16 tackles, six unassisted.

Three plays later Gillespie appeared to lose 10 yards when Jerry Polk hit him in the backfield. Then, Gillespie cut back against the grain for a 33-yard pick-up and an Oak Grove first down, putting the Warriors on the Rock 28-yard line. Oak Grove scored on a 23-yard pass from Donnie Bridges to Ben Langford at the 8:47 mark of the first quarter. Michael Lipps' PAT gave Oak Grove a 7-0 lead.

Corey Charles busted loose for a gain of 20 yards and a Rock first down. However, the offense sputtered and continued to do so for the remainder of the first half. SSC eventually had to punt back to the Warriors.

Oak Grove followed with a 24-play, 74-yard drive that consumed nearly 14 minutes. The Warriors took over on their own 26 with 7:14 to go in the first quarter and ended on Bridges' five-yard scoring pass to Trey Light with 5:26 left in the first half.

The Rocks had put the Warriors in a third and 19 after Gex and Ryan Watson threw Gillespie for a four-yard loss. Bridges dropped back and hit Langford for a gain of 26 yards and a first down.

The Warriors were again in a third and long when Bridges connected with Gillespie for a 23-yard gain and another first down to keep the drive alive.

Four plays later Bridges connected with Light. Lipps' PAT increased the Warrior lead to 14-0.

The Rocks got a huge gain from Tyree Haynes and Chris Middleton plunged ahead for four yards and a Rock first down. On the next play, the Warriors recovered a SSC fumble.

The Rock defense led by Charles, Gex, and Brad Cannon, held and the Warriors attempted a field goal. The kick sailed wide right and the Rocks took over with 1:14 to go in the half.

The Rocks were intercepted by Gillespie on a long pass.

Bridges went back to the air for Oak Grove, connecting with Matthew Fairburn for a gain of 36 yards and a first down. Oak Grove attempted a 42-yard field goal that was blocked by Ryan Watson but was replayed due to a roughing call. The second kick by Lipps sailed far left and the half ended with Oak Grove up 14-0.

The second half saw the Rocks come alive. SSC got a first down on Haynes' 14-yard run. Next, Gex connected with tight end David Bell for 11 yards and another first down. Two plays later, Gex went back to the air for a 33-yard scoring strike to Cannon at the 8:02 mark of the third quarter. Casey Swanson's PAT attempt was good, making the score 14-7.

The Rock defense, led by Gex and Bell, forced the Warriors into a punt situation and got the ball back on the Oak Grove 40-yard line.

Haynes busted loose for a 34-yard run but fumbled on the Oak Grove six. However, fullback Chris Middleton recovered for the Rocks at the Warrior five. Two plays later, Haynes dove in from three yards out for the score at the 4:16 mark of the third quarter. Swanson missed the PAT attempt, leaving the score 14-13.

Gex was four of 11 for 67 yards, one touchdown, and three interceptions. Haynes rushed for 88 yards and a one score. Bridges was 10 of 13 for 180 yards and three scores. Gillespie rushed for 158 yards and one score.

Oak Grove improved to 2-6. The Rocks fell to 3-5 overall, 0-3 in the district.

The Rocks travel to Petal for a district matchup next Friday.

Petal pounds Hancock, 26-7

BY ED LEPOMA

Petal routed Hancock 26-7 Friday night in a Divison 7-4A contest at Hawks Stadium in Kilm.

The Panthers, led by quarterback Shane Tapper, scored first less than two minutes after Gary Reed took the opening kickoff back to the Hawk 36-yard line.

In the next two plays, Tapper connected with a 17-yard pass to Patrick McCrory, then another 15-yard scoring pass to Reed.

The Panthers tried for two points, and failed, and the score was 6-0 with 10 minutes to go in the first quarter.

The Hawks looked like they were going to make a game of it, as quarterback Chad Peterson engineered a 60-yard drive on Hancock's ensuing possession.

The Hawks moved from their own 40 on strong running by Darrell Williams and Jimmy Jones.

Williams ran in from the seven-yard line, and Chris Green kicked the PAT to give the Hawks a 7-6 lead with 5:20 remaining in the first quarter.

The Panthers ate up the clock on the next possession on strong running by Sammy Burch, who brought them within scoring range. Halfback Jerid Henslerling scored from eight yards out but the Panthers failed to convert on another two-point attempt, leaving the score 12-7 with only five seconds off the clock in the second quarter.

The Hawks were moving after a series of penalties near the end of the first half when Peterson's pass was intercepted, giving the Panthers possession at the 29.

Tapper lobbed an 11-yard pass to Chris Marshall, and Tottie Myers took it in for 15 yards to make the score 19-7 after John Marsh's PAT. The scoring closed out the first half.

The Hawks took the second half kickoff, but were unable to push the ball pass their own 37. However, T.J. Smith's kick took a nice roll, and put the Panthers back at their own 24-yard line. The Hawks defense held, and forced the Panthers to kick, but the offense bogged down again on the next series.

Peterson tried to force a pass to Brent Hatten, but was intercepted, and the Panthers took over at the Hawk 26.

Tapper engineered another drive, and ran left for five yards into the end zone. The PAT by Marsh was good. With seven seconds to go in the third quarter, the score was 26-7, and it would be the last score of the evening.

The loss puts the Hawks at 4-4 for the season, and 2-2 in district play.

Hancock High travels to Picayune next Friday for another district contest.

McCoy's to close 3 Coast outlets

McCoy's Building Supply Centers, with headquarters in San Marcos, Texas, has announced the closing of their three Mississippi Gulf Coast locations effective Saturday, Oct. 28.

These stores would include Gulfport, Iberville and Pascagoula. The privately held and family-owned McCoy Corporation will continue to operate 103 stores in six states, including Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana, Arkansas and Mississippi.

"While we are excited about long-term growth plans, this market has become too crowded and unable to meet sales targets, causing it to no longer be viable," was the official statement released Oct. 9 by corporate officers Emmett, Michael and Brian McCoy.

McCoy's would like to express their gratitude to the people of Gulfport, Pascagoula, Iberville and surrounding communities for their past patronage as well as the friendships we've built over the past 2 1/2 years of serving the area. McCoy's first opened its doors in the summer of 1993.

Hancock Holding reports third quarter 1995 results

Hancock Holding Company (NASDAQ/NMS:HBHC) announced results for the third quarter of 1995. Net income for the quarter was $6.7 million compared to $6.3 million for the same period in 1994. Earnings per share amounted to $0.75 in 1995 and $0.78 in 1994 on 8.9 and 8.1 million average shares outstanding, respectively.

Net income for the first nine months was $20.1 million compared to $17.2 million for the same period in 1994. Earnings per share amounted to $2.26 in 1995 and $2.12 in 1994 on 8.9 and 8.1 million average shares outstanding, respectively.

Leo W. Seal Jr., president and CEO, said, "Profits remain above 1994 levels and with future internal consolidation efforts and expansion of our markets through branching, acquisitions, product introductions and enhanced customer service through electronic delivery systems, we anticipate continued growth in both deposits and profits."

Hancock Holding Company, headquartered in Gulfport, is the parent company of Hancock Bank in Gulfport, Hancock Bank of Louisiana in Baton Rouge, and First National Bank of Denham Springs, La.

Through its banks in Mississippi and Louisiana, the company operates 74 full-service offices and 95 automated teller machines. Bank-related affiliates include Hancock Mortgage Corporation, Hancock Insurance Agency and Harrison Finance Company.

Hancock Holding Company's common stock is listed on the NASDAQ under HancHd.

Financial Focus

Put four people together at a table in a restaurant, and most likely, they will order four different entrees. Who's to say why they choose differently; perhaps it's just a whim.

Give four people a choice of mutual funds, and they too will probably each pick a different fund. But hopefully they don't base their decisions on whims.

As more individual investors buy mutual funds, fund managers try harder to understand why investors choose one fund over another. The need to diver-

Why investors choose one mutual fund over another sity causes many investors to look to a variety of funds, and three out of every four mutual fund shareholders today own three or more funds. The reason they select any particular fund, though, seems to be performance.

In a random sample of more than 200 mutual fund investors, more than half said their choice of funds was influenced by the fund's latest one-to-five-year performance records.

This is unfortunate. Investments bought to meet long-term financial needs should not be chosen based on short-term performance records. The guiding factors in choosing a mutual fund should be your investment objectives and risk tolerance.

In addition to short-term performance, the survey also showed investors' other primary considerations in choosing mutual funds. Management was the next most important factor, listed by 18.8 percent of the survey respondents. Potential investors look for longevity and evaluate the track record of the individual who manages the fund.

Perhaps investors are placing more emphasis on management as a result of the fact that mutual fund rating systems developed by various financial publications are beginning to evaluate management. However, only about 8 percent of the survey respondents considered magazine ratings important. More people (8.9 percent) said they look to their brokers for recommendations.

Most of the respondents agreed that mutual funds are not short-term investments. In fact, only about 14 percent followed daily price changes. About half checked prices monthly, and 20 percent admitted to weekly reviews. Less than 30 percent of those surveyed said they try to "time" the market—that is, guess the proper time to buy or sell.

The reason you buy a fund often governs the success of your investment.

Know your financial objectives when choosing mutual funds. As long as those objectives are being met, stay the course.

Public meetings scheduled on area transportation study

A series of public meetings relating to area transportation issues, originally scheduled for Oct. 4 and 5, has been rescheduled by the Gulf Regional Planning Commission and will be held next Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 18 and 19.

The meetings, which will take place in four different Mississippi Gulf Coast cities over the two-day period, had to be postponed earlier this month due to the threat posed by Hurricane Opal.

The Gulf Regional Planning Commission (GRPC), metropolitan planning organization for the Mississippi Gulf Coast area, is currently seeking public comment in connection with the development of a new long-range regional transportation plan for Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties.

In order to provide an opportunity for interested individuals to present their views regarding both the present and anticipated future transportation needs of the region, GRPC will sponsor a series of public meetings at various locations in the three-county area.

Public meetings will be held in all three coastal counties at the following sites and times: Wednesday, Oct. 18, 3-5 p.m.,

Hancock County Courthouse, Main Street, Bay St. Louis.

Wednesday, Oct. 18, 7-9 p.m., J. L. Scott Marine Education Center, 115 Beach Boulevard, Biloxi.

Thursday, Oct. 19, 10 a.m.-noon, Harrison County Courthouse, 23rd Avenue, Gulfport.

Thursday, Oct. 19, 3-5 p.m., Brumfield Building, 650 Delmas Avenue, Pascagoula.

At these meetings GRPC staff and the principal consultants for the study, Barr, Dunlop and Associates, will present a brief overview of the study effort and the results of the preliminary transportation system needs analysis.

Those attending will be given ample time to make comments and suggestions. The principal purpose will be to give those persons living and doing business in the area the opportunity to be actively involved in the ongoing Mississippi Gulf Coast Area Transportation Study Update.

The primary goal of the study effort is to develop a long-range plan for the efficient movement of people and goods in the region through the year 2020, taking into consideration all available transportation modes and all identifiable transportation needs.

As the designated metropolitan planning organization for the Mississippi Gulf Coast area, Gulf Regional Planning Commission is responsible for developing and maintaining the regional transportation plan and for coordinating transportation planning activities in the region in accordance with the requirements of the Intermodal Surface Transportation Efficiency Act of 1991 and other applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

At the present time GRPC is seeking public input regarding needed improvements to streets and highways, public transit facilities and services, pedestrian and bicycle facilities and other aspects of surface transportation systems in the area.

All concerned citizens are strongly urged to attend one of the public meetings scheduled for the third week in October.

Written comments may also be addressed to Mr. Ned J. Boudreaux, Executive Director, Gulf Regional Planning Commission, 1232 Pass Road, Gulfport, MS 39501-6237.

Jubilee Casino employees raise money for March of Dimes

Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Casino employees marched on Saturday to the amount of $1,200 for the Magnolia Division of the March of Dimes, Mississippi Chapter.

"There were 32 employees who dedicated their day off to walk the seven-mile trip for a good cause," said Carole Martin, director of Human Resources for the casino.

Human Resource clerk Michelle Webster said it was a perfect day for an outing.

"The walk gave us all time to reflect upon the graces and good health most of us enjoy, and to contribute to an organization that makes a tremendous, positive difference to those who are not quite so fortunate," she said.

Alcan Cable employees complete AMA course

Four Alcan Cable Co. employees have completed an American Management Association's training program through the University of Southern Mississippi's College of International and Continuing Education.

The 18-week program designed for Alcan Cable consisted of six courses designed to help management personnel improve and enhance their skills, said Charles Ponder, program development specialist in the College of International and Continuing Education. This is the first time USM has conducted an AMA training program in-house for a company on the Gulf Coast, Ponder said.

The employees began the course June 1. Those who completed the program were awarded AMA certificates during a special ceremony at the company Sept. 28.

Alcan Cable Co. manufactures high power cables.

Those completing the AMA course through USM included: — Sean D. Miller of Bay St. Louis, a production facilitator at Alcan;

— John M. Woodard of Long

First "official" transaction

Mrs. Rosalee Burkes, right, assisted by Pauline Davidson, makes the first "official" transaction at Hancock Bank's Pearllington Drive-Thru Automatic Teller Machine on Wednesday. Hancock Bank's first branch opened in Pearllington in 1902, when the community was at its height. The property for the new facility was made available through Mrs. Burkes, a longtime Hancock Bank customer. The property transaction was handled by Annette York Realty. It is open 24-hour-a-day, seven-days-a-week, Jerry Heitzmann, vice-president and Bay beach branch manager said.

Jubilee

In some cases, Jubilee failed to even respond to creditors' allegations of non-payment, and were found in default. The creditors were allowed to dip into Jubilee's holdings at a Biloxi bank, taking partial payments for overdue debts.

Merchants have gone to court to collect bills for a wide range of goods and services: from lapel pins and slot machine tokens to insurance payments and airline "junket" flights.

Amid the pending litigation are several typical "slip and fall" lawsuits, seeking hefty awards for accidents and injuries of patrons.

And the judgment rolls reflect some litigation finalized elsewhere, concerning Alpha Gulf Coast Inc., the parent company of Jubilee. Those liens include a State Tax Commission claim of $154,522, a sum including $125,119 in state taxes, and $29,402 in penalties.

Filed in mid-August, the lien covers what the state claims the casino should have paid in the period spanning May 1993 through September 1994.

State officials declined to say if Jubilee has made any payment of those state charges since the lien was filed, but it remains an unsatisfied judgment on the rolls.

The lien, says Keith Rawls of the State Tax Commission office in Gulfport, stems from a routine audit of sales and use taxes. All casinos which have opened on the Coast have been subjected to similar audits, said Rawls, and problems with initial accounting procedures were not uncommon.

In fact, some owed more money in past taxes than Jubilee, he said, but all have paid their debts except Jubilee and those involved in bankruptcy proceedings.

The effect of the lien by the state is that Jubilee cannot move its boat outside of Mississippi, said Rawls, or transfer ownership of it without payment being made.

If the boat is relocated to Greenville, as Jubilee officials hope, it will have to operate under a new license from the State Gaming Commission.

That privilege recently was granted by the commission, but a number of strings were attached to the new license, says commission deputy director Chuck Patton.

The new license is effective on the date that Jubilee shuts down operations in Hancock County, and upon payment of "all fees and taxes."

Aside from the state Tax Commission's lien, the casino is indebted to Hancock County. Officials reached an agreement recently with Jubilee attorneys concerning the payment of past due taxes and interest for 1994, and anticipated taxes for 1995.

Under the pact, Jubilee would put up some $60,000 in cash, and post a surety bond sufficient to pay remaining taxes for the two disputed years.

The casino also agrees to pay a penalty of one percent a month for each month the total balance is outstanding.

Taxes have been a sore point with Jubilee for months: the casino refused to pay its 1994 debt to Hancock County and contested the calculations of the county tax assessor's office. The recently-reached agreement amounts to a compromise settlement, far less than the sum originally assessed on the Jubilee's local holdings.

Area officials were stunned and disappointed to learn of Jubilee's hopes to pull out of Lakeshore. Casino officials say the new location will be more profitable than the Hancock County site, although they have said they will relocate the "Cotton Club" casino, a much smaller craft, to Jubilee's existing site.

Patton said stipulations attached to Jubilee's new license include a requirement that the casino adhere to an "infrastructure" plan presented last month to the Gaming Commission.

That plan calls for construction of an entertainment center locally, said Patton.

While the construction doesn't have to be complete before the casino swap can take place, Patton said the commission retains the right to revoke Jubilee's license to do business if the schedule for construction isn't met.

Jubilee general manager John Kingsbury did not return Echo telephone calls concerning the casino's plans and financial status.

federal flood zone regulations. No trailers are allowed in the Jubilee surrounds, because the area is designated as a "V" zone.

While Jubilee has been given to mid-November to relocate the trailers, they have until Oct. 20 to appeal the ruling by the Planning Commission. Such an appeal would be handled by the county Board of Supervisors.

The issue was discussed at the October Planning Commission meeting, resulting in a unanimous decision that the trailers must go. The commission recommended they be relocated to Highway 90, an area not in the floodplain.

County Building Official Willie Gavney said last week his recent inspection showed that the trailers contain office and computer equipment.

In addition to violating FEMA regulations, Gavney said only two of the three trailers were properly licensed with the county.

Federal Emergency Management Agency regulations, and the county Flood Damage Prevention ordinance, bar any mobile homes in high flood hazard areas. If the county doesn't enforce its flood plain regulations, it could mean loss of flood insurance availability anywhere within the county.

Teacher

January, Melaney earned her education degree from USM, and she's been at North Bay Elementary ever since.

The Sallie Mae Award is made to first year teachers, and came with a $1,500 personal stipend and a free trip to Washington, D.C. This year the event was scheduled Sept. 21-24, and it was only the second time in the 11-year history of the awards that winners were brought to Washington.

Each recipient also received a personalized lucite sculpture presented at an awards banquet held at the exclusive Four Seasons Restaurant in Washington's historic Georgetown area.

While in the nation's capital, Melaney also visited with State Sen. Trent Lott, participated in an educational symposium, visited the White House and other historic landmarks.

Melaney brought her husband and daughter with her, and said, "The experience was wonderful — for the whole family."

The energetic teacher and mother has also been innovative in landing grants for North Bay Elementary.

Just recently, South Central Bell presented her a $500 teacher grant, recognizing her innovative teaching ideas.

Melaney has proposed a Geo-Lympics, focusing on the summer 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta. The grant will help launch a school-wide study of countries from the seven continents represented in the Olympic games.

"Each classroom teacher will choose one country and plan learning opportunities related to that country's geography, history and culture," explained Melaney.

The study will culminate in a school-wide multicultural festival and olympic-style sporting events each spring.

The project will be on-going with each teacher focusing on the same country in successive years. Students will have studied four countries in depth by the time they leave the school and will have a general knowledge of 16 other countries through the annual festivals.

Before that, Melaney wrote an application and was awarded a $1,200 grant from Mississippi Power Co. The funds were used to purchase materials and science kits for the school library, and teachers can check them out for use in their individual classrooms.

Melaney also sets an example to students by challenging them to never stop learning. She's currently working on a Master's degree in Education at USM's Long Beach campus, focusing on supervision and administration.

Our Lady Academy Food Fest

Under a beautiful fall sky, Our Lady Academy hosted its 13th Annual International Food Fest Oct. 6-8.

As the school's main fundraiser for the year, the festival featured great food, live entertainment, arts and crafts booths, a $1,000 drawing, a flea market and a funland for children.

During the three days, a wide variety of the world's best foods included Gulf seafood, Greek, Oriental, American, German, French, Mexican, Italian, Western and Cajun.

The OLA Athletic Department sponsored a flea market under the tent with the funland for children.

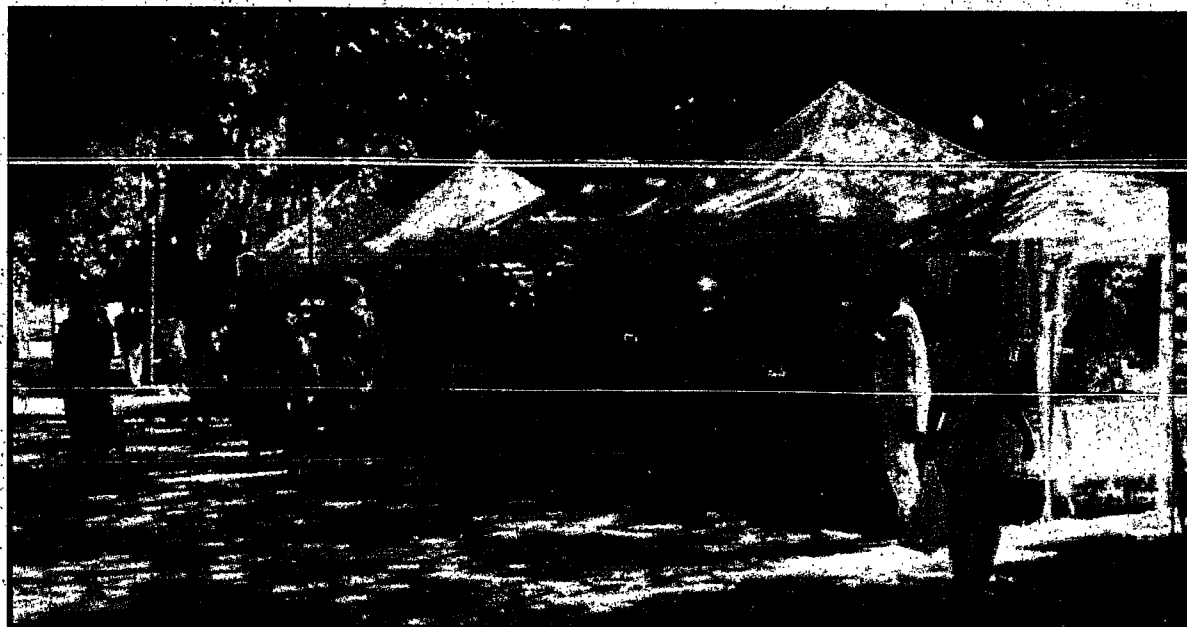

The Food Fest is organized, orchestrated and operated by an all-volunteer army of teachers, parents, OLA and SJA alumnae, and local friends of the school. The funds generated by this year's festival will be used to pay for the construction of Mercy Hall, the new classroom building opened in 1993.

(Right) Eighth grade students of Our Lady Academy entertained the crowd with Jamaican songs at the Our Lady Academy Food Fest last weekend.

The Mexican food booth was one of the popular food stops at the annual Our Lady Academy Food Fest held Oct. 6, 7 and 8 on the church grounds of Our Lady of the Gulf.

Many people strolled the church grounds, taking advantage of a wonderful fall afternoon to peruse a number of crafters and vendors selling their wares.

'Chefs' were kept busy last Saturday afternoon keeping up with the demand for their cuisine at the Food Fest Oct. 6-8.

Families had their choice of a wide variety of cuisine as they enjoyed lunch at the Our Lady Academy Food Fest.

March of Dimes Walk-A-Thon

Hancock County March of Dimes had its annual Walk-A-Thon Saturday, Oct. 7. Jay Lagasse was chairman of the event, while Betsy Ashman was co-team walk chairman. The Walk-A-Thon raised over $12,000 and the proceeds will be used for healthier babies and to educate mothers-to-be. (Echo staff photo by Ellis C. Cuevas)

ETV media debates and voter guides

LWVMS, ETV, and The Clarion Ledger are co-sponsoring the following information tools to help inform voters in the Tuesday, Nov. 7 General Election.

The debates will be broadcast statewide and live from ETV and are scheduled from 7-8 p.m. on the following evenings in October:

Monday, Oct. 23, Agriculture

Commissioner; Tuesday, Oct. 24, Governor; Wednesday, Oct. 25, Attorney General; and Thursday, Oct. 26, Lieutenant Governor.

Should any candidate choose not to participate, ETV will offer their opponent one-half hour to answer questions. In compliance with LWV's non-partisan policy, League will only be a sponsor if both candidates debate. There will be question and answer video voter's guide programs for the other statewide races. The broadcasts will be from 7-7:30 p.m. on the following nights:

Tuesday, Oct. 31, Insurance Commissioner; Wednesday, Nov. 1, State Auditor; Thursday, Nov. 2, Secretary of State; and Friday, Nov. 3, State Treasurer.

Elks present pre-HUBfest

Cajun/Country/Blues Fest will kick off the HUBfest weekend at 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 20, when the gates open at Elks Dixie Music Park off Browns Bridge Road in the Dixie Community.

The music fest is presented annually by BPOE No. 599 Music Committee as a HUBfest event.

The state show will start at 7 p.m. and features Southern Tradition and Libby Rae and the Liberators.

Southern Tradition, a five-piece band of country artists playing out of the Pine Belt area, consist of Kevin Fairley, Jerry Burkhalter, Paul Holliman, Kevin Hall and Billy Carr.

Libby Rae & The Liberators, talented musicians who reside on the Mississippi Gulf Coast, perform mostly original material with a little traditional blues mixed in.

Band members are Scooter Gaines, Sara Smith, Terry Powers and Libby Rae Watson. For further information, call 601-544-7676.

Environmental hearing

The Mississippi Commission on Environmental Quality has scheduled three public hearings to receive comments regarding the state's Water Quality Criteria and proposed amendments.

The hearings have been set for Oct. 17 at Ramada Metro, Ellis Avenue and I-20 West, Jackson; Oct. 18 at Holiday Inn, Hwy. 8 West and I-55, Grenada; and Oct. 19 at Holiday Inn, 5563 U.S. Hwy. 49, Hattiesburg. All three hearings begin at 6:30 p.m.

All of the proposed changes to the state's Water Quality Criteria are in Amendment 1, which is the criteria for metals in the waters of the state. These proposed changes are based on additional scientific data now available to the Department of Environmental Quality.

Written comments will be made a part of the hearing record if received by Robert H.

Seyfarth at the Mississippi Department of Environmental Quality, Office of Pollution Control, by 5 p.m. Friday, Oct. 20.

For questions or comments regarding the state's Water Quality Criteria or the proposed amendments, or to obtain a copy of the proposed amendments contact Robert H. Seyfarth, Chief, Water Quality Management Branch, P.O. Box 10385, Jackson, MS 39289, or call (601) 961-5171.

Harvest Ball Nov. 17

Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Auxiliary Unit 139 has chosen Hancock County's Hope Haven to be the recipient of funds raised at its Harvest Ball and Auction.

The gala event is scheduled at 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 17 at the Legion's home, 730 Green Meadow Road in Bay St. Louis, according to Phyllis Moran, who is chairing the event.

Tickets are $6 for singles and $12 for couples, and are available at the American Legion Clubhouse or from Legion or Auxiliary members.

Moran said it will be a B.Y.O.B. event, and will feature music by the Kieth Hoda Band.

In addition, items donated by area merchants and businessmen will be auctioned off the night of the dance. And raffle tickets will be on sale during the ball for the grand prize of the evening.

For those unable to attend, Moran said the Auxiliary will accept donations to benefit Hope Haven, the shelter that is being renovated in Bay St. Louis for abused, neglected or abandoned children of Hancock County.

For ticket information, contact 467-7100.

Stennis grant

Dr. Denis Wiesenburg, director of the University of Southern Mississippi's Center for Marine Sciences at Stennis Space Center, received a $55,385 grant from the Naval Research Laboratory for his project "Coastal Ocean variability assessment using satellite and field data," a two-year program.

He also attended the Gulf of Mexico Large Marine Ecosystem symposium Aug. 23-25 in St. Petersburg, Fla., which brought together experts and professionals who discussed better ways to link scientific information to environmental management decisions.

He presented "Overview of LATEX A Biological and Chemical Studies" at the LATEX A/B Biologists' meeting Aug. 16 at Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge.

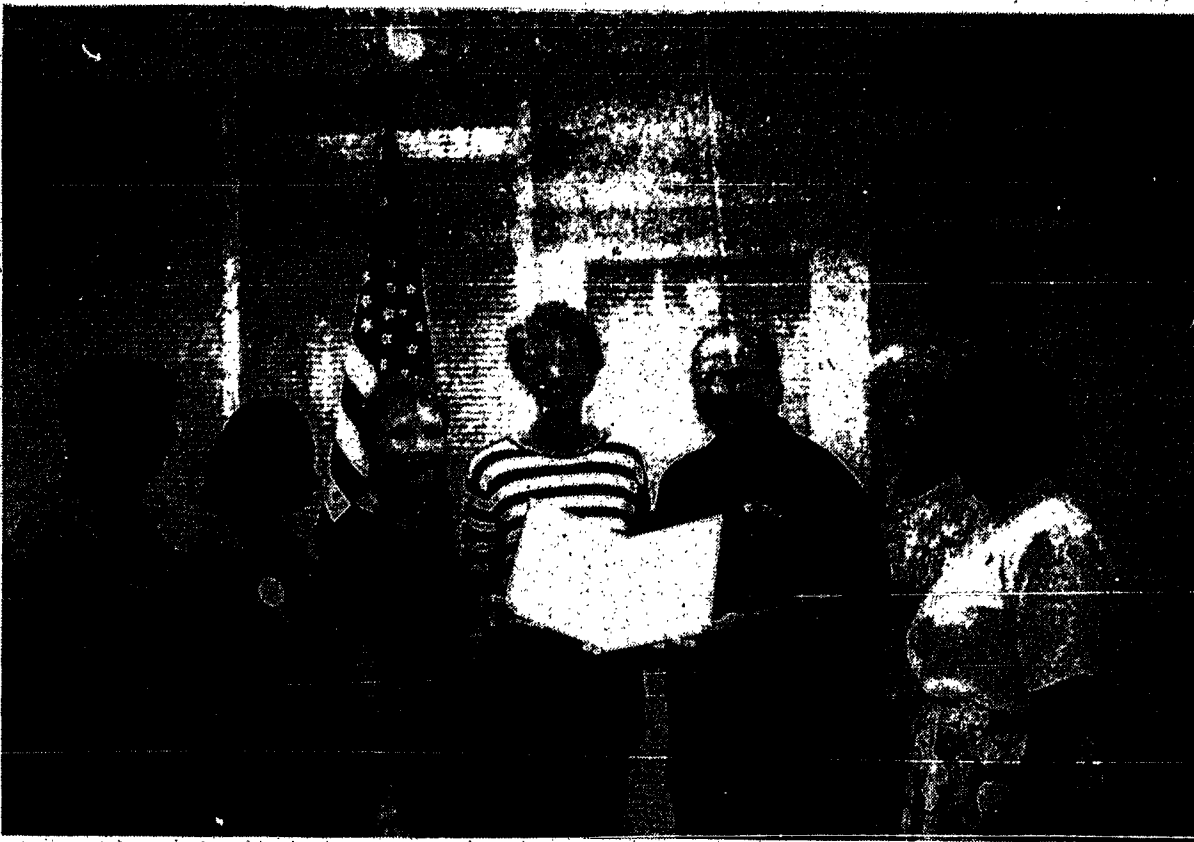

Dr. Alan Shiller, associate professor of marine sciences at CMS, presented "An overview of the marine chemistry of the Gulf of Mexico" during The Gulf of Mexico: A Large Marine Ecosystem, a symposium sponsored by the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration and the Environmental Protection Agency's Gulf of Mexico Program in St. Petersburg Aug. 23-24.

Dr. Charlotte Brunner, associate professor of marine sciences at CMS, presented a poster, "Sediment chemistry and pore water fluxes in the vicinity of Dry Tortugas," co-authored with Shiller and graduate students Tracey Herbert and Kelly Thornton, during the first Society for Sedimentary Geology meeting Aug. 13-15 in St. Petersburg.

Dr. Steve Lohrenz, associate professor of marine sciences at CMS, presented "Primary Production and Nutrient Processes in the Mississippi River Outflow Region," at the North Carolina Nutrient Summit Aug. 15 in Raleigh, N.C. He also presented "What Controls Primary Production in the Gulf of Mexico" during The Gulf of Mexico: A Large Marine Ecosystem symposium Aug. 23-24 in St. Petersburg.

Dr. Igor Shulman, a researcher at CMS, presented "Local Data Assimilation in Specification of Open Boundary Conditions" at the 21st general assembly of the International Association of the Physical Sciences of the Oceans Aug. 7 in Honolulu.

Dr. Yoko Furukawa, a research scientist at CMS, presented "Oxidation of Aqueous Sulfide in Porewater as the Possible Cause for Carbonate Dissolution During Early Diagenesis" at the first Society for Sedimentary Geology conference Aug. 13-16 in St. Petersburg.

Reconciliation in Christ Rally

A Celebration of Reconciliation in Christ rally is set for Oct. 18-19 at the Mississippi Coliseum. The rally is sponsored by Mission Mississippi, an organization created to encourage and express unity in the Body of Christ across racial and denominational lines so that the message of Christ can be better seen in communities throughout Mississippi.

The rally kicks off Wednesday, Oct. 18 at 7 p.m. with a special night, featuring Joseph Jennings, a national youth anti-drug motivational speaker and contemporary Christian vocalist Kathy Troccoli.

The rally continues Thursday, Oct. 19 at 7 p.m. with a Worship and Unity Night, featuring nationally-recognized pastor and speaker E. V. Hill and Frank Pollard, pastor of First Baptist Church of Jackson.

Admission to the rally is free. For information about Mission Mississippi and third annual rally, call 601-353-6477.

Young leader

Annie Boelte of Pearlinton has been chosen to attend the National Young Leaders Conference, Oct. 31-Nov. 5, in Washington, D.C.

Boelte, a junior at Our Lady Academy, is one of 350 students attending the program for high school students who have demonstrated leadership potential and scholastic merit. She will interact with key leaders and newsmakers from the government, media and diplomatic corps.

Highlights include a welcome

Eighth Air Force meets

The Eighth Air Force Historical Society will have its fall meeting Oct. 27-29 at The Harvey Hotel, I-55 North, Jackson (formerly Holiday Inn North).

Registration starts Friday, with dinner and entertainment Friday evening. A gala banquet will be Saturday, at which Lt. Gen. E. G. "Buck" Shuler will be guest speaker. On Sunday there will be a farewell brunch.

New members are welcome. For information, contact Howard Richardson at 362-7151 in Jackson.

from the House of Representatives, a panel discussion with journalists at the National Press Club, visits to foreign embassies, and policy briefings from senior government officials.

Boelte may also meet with Sen. Thad Cochran, Sen. Trent Lott, Rep. Gene Taylor or a member of their staff to discuss important issues.

Scholars will participate in several leadership skill-building activities, including role-playing the president and members of his staff who must respond to an international crisis.

The "Mock Congress" culminates the conference. Scholars assume the roles of U.S. Representatives and debate, amend and vote on crime legislation.

OUR BABIES ARE BORN WITH A SILVER SPOON
AT NORTHSORE REGIONAL MEDICAL CENTER

Life's advantages begin early for our babies. As soon as they are born, our babies receive a silver spoon* as a gift.

This is merely one of many sterling opportunities at NorthShore Regional Medical Center. Expectant parents are given a beeper to use before delivery, and are encouraged to take advantage of free classes, programs and tours.

Also, our moms-to-be can use the individualized Pregnagym™ program at The Health Center at NorthShore Regional for no extra charge.

Baby goes home in style with an infant car seat and baby monitor. Plus, our babies are eligible for the Born Winner prize drawing where a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond, dedicated to the child's education, is given away each month.

And, don't forget the best reason to preregister—mothers in labor are escorted directly to their deluxe labor/delivery/recovery room. Since all paperwork has been completed there's no need to stop at the admit desk.

To qualify, mothers-to-be must be pre-registered with The Women's Center at NorthShore Regional and a patient of an obstetrician on the hospital's medical staff. To learn more about preregistration, call The Women's Center today, (504) 646-5666.

There's a party just waiting to happen at Party Perfect. Locally owned and operated by Jan and Lloyd "Moon" Corso, Party Perfect offers it's customers answers to party giving dilemmas, no matter what the occasion.

Upon entering the festively decorated store you will be amazed at the variety of merchandise offered. Party Perfect carries an extensive selection of catering supplies. Everything from tablecloths to punchbowls and party favors can be found, reasonably priced at Party Perfect. Whether you're giving a child's birthday party or an "over the hill" party, all the decorations and accessories you will need are at Party Perfect. The store offers a wide variety of bridal and baby shower items too!

Party Perfect has a great selection of invitations for all occasions, and the store also provides custom imprinting. Once you've found the perfect invitation for your gathering, Party Perfect can arrange for your cake to be custom made to look exactly like it, courtesy of Cake Expressions by JoAnn. Or if you want to try your own hand at cake decorating, Party Perfect has an extensive selection of cake decorating supplies and equipment.

Now let's talk balloons! Party Perfect has balloons in every shape, size, color and for every occasion imaginable. And if you want something fancier than a balloon bouquet, Party Perfect will be happy to accommodate you. Jan has attended schools which specialize in balloon instruction and her talents range from balloon arches and sculptures to gorgeous balloon canopies. Party Perfect also rents helium tanks for any function. Party Perfect offers delivery on custom gourmet gift baskets and balloon-o-grams too.

Party Perfect has a novel way to gift wrap called "gift in a balloon." (What a fun way to give or receive a gift.)

With the holidays approaching, be sure to visit Party Perfect for all your holiday decorations. Jan says "If we don't have it, we can get it for you."

Stop in the most fun store in Bay St. Louis located at 1019 Highway 90 anytime Monday through Saturday from 9AM to 7PM or on Sunday from 10AM to 2PM or call 466-0301 for additional information.

Princess Shoppe Teen Board donates to OLA

The Teen Board of the Princess Shoppe in Bay St. Louis raised $1,500 for Our Lady Academy with a fashion show at the Pass Christian Yacht Club. Princess Fahey, owner of the Princess Shoppe, was sponsor of the show.

The annual show, entitled "Discover Yourself," featured many styles of current fashions modeled by Teen Board members of 1994-95. OLA models included Corinna Carver, Anne Marie Cockfield, Michelle Dauro, Katie Hursey, Sarah Taylor and U'Nita Twiggs. OLA alumnae who also participated were Anna DeMarco and Rebecca Dockens. The commentary was given by Jane Ann Fahey.

Teen Board members for 1995-96 from OLA are Ashley Artigues, Corinna Carver, Anne Marie Cockfield, Sally Dane, Michelle Dauro, Julie Dreher, Chloe Frost, Francis Hamilton, Page Harder, Jessica Keller, Leora Madden, Michelle Madden, Adriann McCall and U'Nita Twiggs. Teen Board coordinator is Eleanor Rogers.

Refreshments were prepared and served by parents and students of OLA.

Mad Potter's Ball set at Ohr Center

The evening of Oct. 27 brings the second Mad Potter's Ball, a festive event filled with food, music and art—all in the spirit of George Ohr as the Man in the Moon.

Coordinated annually by a talented volunteer team, this year's event will feature magicians, palm readers and Renaissance music, all set amidst a mystical, celestial theme.

Chef Donald Wicks of Casino Magic will prepare a dessert menu that will include a banana foster station, mini praline tulips, assorted chocolate cups and an apple and almond crepes station. The menu will be complemented by sparkling wines from Korbel and Armstrong Ridge and a gourmet coffee bar.

Members of PSS1, the Procrastinators' Society of Serious Theatre, will mingle among the audience portraying characters, such as George Ohr himself and add to the medieval carnival feel of the party. Consortium Musicum will provide music for the evening.

The ball will be the first opportunity for many Ohr enthusiasts to view the 30 new pots recently loaned by Guy and Honey Chatham. This wonderful collection includes an intricate 18-inch pot that displays Ohr's glazing genius.

A silent auction will include numerous items, including an original Bill Nelson painting which is the art on the 1995 festival poster. The live auction will feature a small piece of Newcomb pottery donated by Guy and Honey Chatham.

The Mad Potter's Ball, underwritten by Casino Magic, is the annual fundraiser for the George Ohr Arts and Cultural Center. Tickets, which are $30 each, are now on sale, and the public is invited to help support the center while enjoying a gala evening at the center.

The ball kicks off George Ohr's Fall Festival Weekend which includes a juried art exhibit in the Center's Lila Wallace Gallery and a two-day outdoor festival featuring arts and crafts, good food and great music.

Salute to the Military

General Charles C. Krulak, Commandant of the United States Marine Corps, will be the guest speaker at the 17th annual Salute to the Military on Oct. 30.

The annual event, sponsored and produced by the Mississippi Gulf Coast Chamber of Commerce and held at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum and Convention Center, honors the nation's military service personnel, particularly those commands located along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. with the program beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $22 for active duty military ($220 for a table of 10), and $30 per person for all others ($300 for a table of 10), and are available from the Biloxi Chamber of Commerce. Reservations may be made by calling (601) 374-2717.

Gen. Krulak, the Marine's highest ranking officer, was promoted to General on June 29, 1995 and assumed duties as the 31st Commandant of the Marine Corps on June 30, 1995.

Since his commissioning and graduation from The Basic School at Quantico, Gen. Krulak has held a variety of command and staff positions, including command of a platoon and two rifle companies during his two tours of duty in Vietnam, and Military Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Command, Control, Communications and Intelligence, Office of the Secretary of Defense.

While serving as the Deputy Director, the White House Military Office, he was selected for promotion to brigadier general, was advanced to that grade on June 5, 1989, and assigned duties as the Commanding General, 10th Marine Expeditionary Brigade/Assistant Division Commander, 2nd Marine Division, FMF Atlantic, Camp Lejeune, N.C.

He was advanced to Major General in March, 1992, was assigned as Commanding General, Marine Corps Combat Development Command, Quantico, Va. on Aug. 24, 1992, and promoted to lieutenant general Sept. 1, 1992.

A native of Quantico, Va., Gen. Krulak graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1964 with a bachelor's degree in engineering, and also holds a master's degree in labor relations from George Washington University.

Gen. Krulak's decorations and medals include, among others, the Defense Distinguished Service Medal, Silver Star Medal, Bronze Star Medal with Combat "V" and two gold stars, Purple Heart with gold star, Meritorious Service Medal, Presidential Unit Citation with bronze star, Republic of Vietnam Cross of Gallantry, and the Kuwait Liberation Medal.

WEEKLY GAMING HOROSCOPE

BY JOE MARR THE GREAT

MONDAY, OCT. 16—I'm picturing famous Italian things: the Tower of Pisa, Pompeii, the Colosseum in Rome, Sylvester Stallone, his mother, the All-You-Can-Eat Monday Night Italian Buffet at Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Casino. I see only one readily available that is not ancient, not kind of strange, and that you would really even want anyway, and it's only $4.95. Go figure. An entry tonight for their Wednesday $5,000.00 Shop 'Til-You-Drop cash drawing and limo ride to your favorite mall will pay off handsomely later in the week.

TUESDAY, OCT. 17—Change is in the air down on Bayou Caddy, and it starts with the new All-You-Can-Eat Tuesday Barbecue at Buffet Royale for $4.95. This finger lickin' bargain includes smoked chicken, country pork ribs, smoked sausage, all the fixins', corn-on-the-cob, baked beans, salad, bar, desserts and more. Fill in a Shop 'Til-You-Drop entry form tonight, and a little luck will stick to you too, for tomorrow night's $5,000.00 cash giveaway and a limo ride to the winner's favorite mall for some early Christmas shopping.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 18—An early traffic prediction for today: avoid Casino Magic Boulevard due to another alligator on the road that contrary to newspaper reports, will actually be trying to escape from the casino, and their marketing department's twisted attempt to duplicate Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Casino's cute Jubilee Joe. They will call the local SPCA, dispense with the publicity, and just tell them to just come pick up Casino Joe No. 24. No way to clone the excitement tonight at Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Casino for their $5,000.00 Shop 'Til You Drop cash giveaway at 10 p.m. and two $500 mini sprays at 9 & 9:30 p.m. Lady Luck will smile on you if you started out the evening with Buffet Royale's $4.95 Tex-Mex Night, and jammin' to the sounds of local faves Night People on the second floor.

THURSDAY, OCT. 19—In your future: great things on the horizon of the Mississippi Sound at Lakeshore. I feel you'll be partying and winning big on Bayou Caddy for the next several months, what with all the send-offs and grand openings being planned. Look for strange omens in the sky. Meanwhile, live it up anytime at either Buffet Royale's All-You-Can-Eat Breakfast Buffet for only $2.99 or a delicious Lunch 'Til-You-Drop for only $3.99.

FRIDAY, OCT. 20—Assure a good weekend with Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Casino's All-You-Can-Eat Seafood Buffet for only $11.95. Thrill to the Sounds of "Thrill." Your fifth pull on that slot machine your friend won big on is going to pay your car note off, with a little left over for junior's dental work. IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY—They're throwing you an embarrassing surprise party tonight at you-know-where and they've all pitched in to get you a joke present you don't want.

$5,000.00 SHOP 'TIL YOU DROP

Drawing for Shopping Spree at 10 p.m. each Wed. Promotion begins on Wed. Sept. 27, 1995. Winner must live and shop within a 100 mile radius of Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Casino. One free entry form per person per day. Additional entry forms may be obtained by accumulating 25 Bayou Caddy's Jubilee Joe Keweenaw Club front entrance. Management reserves the right to alter, modify, or cancel this promotion without prior notice. Must be 21 years of age. No mail-in entries will be accepted. You must be present to win. Limos subject to availability by reservations. Offer valid for 30 days. Winner accepting limo ride must shop within 100 mile radius. No secret little message this week, sorry.

Messiah to be presented

The Gulf Coast Messiah Chorus, successor to the Keeler Messiah Chorus, will offer three performances of George F. Handel's oratorio, Messiah. The 42nd year of this Coast Christmas tradition will feature an 80-voice chorus with full orchestra.

Performances are scheduled for Friday, Dec. 1 at 7:30 p.m. at First Baptist Church in Gulfport, for Saturday, Dec. 2 at 8:15 p.m. at the Saenger Theatre in Biloxi, and for Sunday, Dec. 3 at 2:30 p.m. at St. Paul Catholic Church in Pass Christian. All performances are free and open to the public on a space available basis.

Anyone wishing to help defray some of the costs of this year's Messiah, may send tax deductible contributions to St. Paul Catholic Church/Gulf Coast Messiah Chorus, P.O. Box 548, Pass Christian, MS 39571.

Each $50 donation entitles the donor to a special reserved seat in the Dress Circle for the Saturday performance at the Saenger Theatre.

For additional information, contact St. Paul Church at 452-4686.

Fall Muster slated at Beauvoir

The ninth annual Fall Muster will be held on the grounds of Beauvoir Oct. 21-22. Cosponsored by the museum and the Jefferson Davis Legion, an alliance of Mississippi reenactment groups, the muster will recreate slices of life in the Magnolia State during the War Between the States.

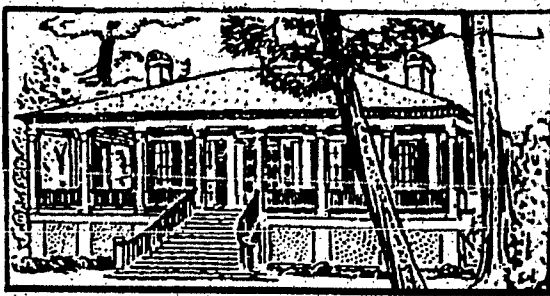

This year's event will highlight the year 1863, a turning point in the war both in Mississippi and across the South. Living historians from Alabama, Florida, Louisiana and Tennessee will join their counterparts from Mississippi to present exhibits and demonstrations relating to this time period. Activities portrayed will range from a 19th century tea and political speeches to military drills and combat.

Special audience participation activities will also be included in the muster. The 19th century children's games, a popular activity at last year's muster, will be continued and expanded this year.

In addition the Twelfth Louisiana Regimental Spring Band will conduct dance demonstrations and provide dance lessons for the public in conjunction with its daily concerts of period music.

According to Beauvoir director Keith Hardison, "Mississippi played a major role in the North-South conflict. The state supplied at least 75,000 troops to the war effort, with 28,000 of these dying during the conflict. It was also devastated both physically and economically by engagements spanning the state from Corinth to Ship Island and from Vicksburg to Meridian.

The muster is a program designed to allow individuals and families to explore this exciting yet tragic era on a first-hand, interactive basis."

Muster hours are 9 a.m.-5 p.m. on Saturday and 9 a.m.-4 p.m. on Sunday. Admission rates are $5 for adults, $4.50 for senior citizens (65 years old and above), and $2.50 for children (6-15).

Concessions will be available at the museum for those wishing to eat on-site. Additional free parking will be available at the Mississippi Coast Coliseum.

Beauvoir is located at the intersection of U.S. Hwy. 90 (Beach Boulevard) and Beauvoir Road in Biloxi. A National Historic Landmark Property of the Mississippi Division, Sons of Confederate Veterans, it is open daily. For more information, contact the museum at (601) 388-9075.

The musical with many lives returns to the N.O. Saenger

Tickets are on sale for Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical megahit, Cats, returning to the New Orleans Saenger Theatre as a non-subscription special on the 1995-96 Broadway Series Tuesday, Nov. 14 through Sunday, Nov. 19.

Audiences will be seeing not only a spectacular Broadway musical, but a theatrical phenomenon unparalleled in the history of musical theatre.

The Cats IV Tour holds the record of being the longest, continuously touring musical in theatrical history at seven years. The prior records were set by Oklahoma!, which toured for 10½ years — though not continuously — and A Chorus Line, whose Second National Company toured for six years and three months. The combined touring companies of Cats also hold the record for the total number of playing weeks on the road, surpassing even the combined companies of Annie (633 weeks) and A Chorus Line (531 weeks).

The London production, which opened on May 11, 1981, is still the longest-running musical there. The Broadway company is the third longest-running musical in history, and the longest-running musical currently on Broadway. Having opened October 7, 1982, on Broadway, Cats proved it has more than nine lives as that company celebrated its twelfth anniversary in October of 1994.

Written by Andrew Lloyd Webber, Cats is based on the poems of T.S. Eliot in his book, Old Possum's Book of Practical Cats. An unforgettable evening of theatrical magic, the tale unfolds amidst a huge garbage dump, containing rusted trunks, old fish bones, empty food cans and old magazine covers. Gathering at the full moon for the annual Jellicle Ball, the tribe of felines relate their stories and the memories of their lives.

Andrew Lloyd Webber is the composer of such international successes as Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Jesus Christ Superstar, Evita, Starlight Express and Phantom of the Opera.

Presented by Cameron Mackintosh, the Really Useful Company, Ltd., David Geffen and The Shubert Organization, Cats is directed by Trevor Nunn. Sets and costumes are by John Napier and lighting is designed by David Hersey. For the touring company, lighting design is reproduced by Rick Belzer, scenic design reproduced by Raymond Huessey, choreography reproduced by T. Michael Reed and Richard Stafford, and direction is reproduced by David Taylor.

Tickets are available at all TicketMaster locations and the New Orleans Saenger box office. To charge by phone, call 522-5555. Tickets are priced from $25 to $37.50. Performance times are Tuesday and Wednesday, 8 p.m.; Thursday, 2 and 8 p.m.; Friday, 8 p.m.; Saturday, 2 and 8 p.m.; and Sunday, 2 p.m.

Mississippi law requires the Secretary of State's office to publish the ballot title, ballot summary, arguments for and against, and the full text of each proposed initiative to the Mississippi Constitution Publication must occur three consecutive weeks preceding the general election.

In accordance with Mississippi law, the Secretary of State therefore supplies the following information on proposed Initiative Measure No. 4, to appear on the November 7, 1995 general election ballot.

1. BALLOT TITLE: Shall public officials be limited to two successive terms, with certain judges and congressional representatives limited to three successive terms?

2. BALLOT SUMMARY: This measure would amend the state constitution to limit appointed and elected state and local officials and United States Senators to two successive terms. Circuit, chancery, county and family court judges and congressional representatives would be limited to three successive terms. Service prior to January 1, 1995 would not be counted when determining the number of successive terms served by congressional representatives and United States Senators.

3. TEXT OF THE INITIATIVE: PROPOSAL AN INITIATIVE PROPOSING AN AMENDMENT TO THE MISSISSIPPI
CONSTITUTION OF 1890 TO LIMIT THE TERMS OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS.
Be it enacted by the people of the State of Mississippi: Add Section 252A to the Mississippi Constitution of 1890, to read as follows:

"Preamble: This people of Mississippi find and declare that elected officials who remain in the same office without an intervening term of years become entrenched in public office and tend to become less concerned with their duties as representatives of the people. This entrenched incumbency has led to voter apathy and a closed electoral system. Neither voters nor candidates presently have the benefit of a free, competitive electoral system which is the heart of our democratic government. Therefore, the people of Mississippi, exercising their reserved powers, hereby restrict the number of consecutive terms of elected officials.

Section 252A (1) No person elected or appointed to any public office of this state, or any political subdivision thereof, shall be eligible to serve in that office more than two terms in succession. However, no person elected or appointed to the office of circuit judge, county judge, chancery, or circuit court judge shall be eligible to serve in that office more than three terms in succession. At least fifty percent of one term to which another person was elected shall count as one term. This section shall take effect January 1, 1996.

(2) The name of any representative from the State of Mississippi to the United States Congress shall not be placed on the ballot for re-election at the primary, general, or special election if, by the end of the current term of office, that person will have served (a) for re-election would have served in that office for three consecutive terms. At least one year of a term to which another person was elected shall count as one term.

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as preventing or prohibiting the name of any qualified voter of this state from casting a ballot for any federal legislative candidate by writing the name of that person on the ballot as allowed by applicable law, or from having such a ballot counted or tabulated, nor shall any provision of this article be construed as preventing or prohibiting any person from standing or campaigning for any elective office by means of a "write-in" campaign.

This subsection shall take effect January 1, 1996, and is applicable thereafter to all persons whose names are submitted to the proper authorities for placement on the ballot for all primary, general or special elections for all federal legislative offices. Service prior to January 1, 1996, shall not be counted for purposes of this act.

The Legislature may by law delay the effect of this subsection until twenty-one (21) states, not including the State of Mississippi, have acted so as to limit the terms of their Congressmen in both houses of the United States Congress.

(3) The provisions of this section are hereby declared to be severable and if any should be held invalid, the remainder shall stand.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing any person from serving in previously held public office, or as preventing any authority from placing on the ballot the name of any candidate for a public office in which the candidate has previously served, if at least a period of four years has passed.

Fiscal effect (Supplied by the initiative sponsor): This proposal does not require any revenue to implement.
The proposal does not require a reduction in any source of revenue and it does not require a reallocation of funding from currently funded programs.

4. ARGUMENT FOR THE INITIATIVE
(Written by Mike Crook, sponsor of the initiative, Madison, MS)
The time has come to limit politicians' terms. In the last five years, over 25 million Americans have voted to limit the terms of their public officials. 2,500 state legislators in 20 states, 40 governors and over 17,000 officials in local and municipal governments are term limited.

Why should you vote yes on term limits? Because term limits are the only way we can ensure that our state and local governments work for us. Term limits guarantee that politicians can't use their office for personal gain.
With a continual infusion of new blood and fresh ideas, state and local government will tackle the problems head on instead of political policies.

The longer politicians stay in office, the less likely they are to take risks and show leadership. Why? Because politicians are more worried about pleasing all of the people all of the time than they are about solving the problems our society faces. President Andrew Jackson said, "More is lost by the long continuance of men in office than is generally to be gained by their experience."

Mississippi's term limit law brings an end to this by limiting all state and local politicians and appointed officials to two consecutive terms in office. County, chancery, circuit court and family court judges are limited to three terms. Both Attorney General rulings say the amendment does not apply to police or fire chiefs, municipal clerks or appointed governmental employees.

This initiative does not impose a lifetime ban on holding office after serving the maximum number of terms.
Politicians must sit out for four years before running for that office again, but may run for another office.
Your vote counts in this national movement to restore accountability and honesty to our government. Vote for term limits. It is something you can do.

5. ARGUMENT AGAINST THE INITIATIVE
(Written by R. D. Vandenberg, Chief of Police, Batesville, MS)
If term limits pass, citizens of Mississippi will be deprived of the right to vote for the person of their choice, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States.

As citizens under term limits, we will be told when and for whom we can and cannot vote. The truly free competitive electoral system will be lost. Simply put, term limits says, "You are not intelligent or qualified enough to know how to vote, therefore, we are imposing restrictions to force you to vote as we see fit."

The bride-elect is a 1991 graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi with a degree in business administration. She is employed with Gayfer's in Biloxi where she is in the management training program. She is a member of Delta, Delta, Delta Sorority and is also a member of the Krewe of Nereids in Waveland.

The groom-elect is a 1991 graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi and has a degree in history. He is employed in the Vieux Carré as president of Karno Company, Inc. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity and is a member of the Krewe of Bacchus in New Orleans.

The couple will be wed in a candlelight ceremony at First Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis Saturday, October 21, 1995.

Melissa Harvill and Nicholas Karno

Mannion-Johnson

Melissa Deanne Johnson of Waveland, daughter of Patricia Dunlevy Johnson of Waveland and David Lee Johnson of Gulfport, and Aaron Todd Mannion of Bay St. Louis, son of Brenda Moran of Bay St. Louis and John Mannion of Denver, Colo., were married October 14, 1995 at an evening ceremony at First Baptist Church in Bay St. Louis.

The Rev. Dr. Nathan Barber officiated. Soloist was Dee Dee Maxwell, and Pianist was Gail Carr.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Kimbell Johnson.

For her wedding the bride chose a chapel-length, diamond-white gown of Shantung silk. The bodice featured white pearls and lace inlay. She wore a princess crown veil and carried a bouquet of roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Ann Lathrop. Bridesmaids were Jennifer Hart, Rebecca Winchester and Margaret O'Brien.

Flower girl was Christina Johnson, and junior bridesmaids were Brittany Johnson and Ashley Cagle.

Ring bearer was Jarrell Johnson. Best man was John Anthony Mannion.

Groomsmen were Chris Johnson, Benjamin Moran, and Michael LaGrose.

Usher was David Johnson Sr. A reception was held at Virginia Hall in Bay St. Louis.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted at the home of Brenda and Benjamin Moran.

The couple will make their home in Bay St. Louis.

Chiasson-Nettles

Rene Chiasson and Kimberly Nettles

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ott Nettles Sr. of Baton Rouge, La. announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Kimberly Jo Nettles, to Rene John Chiasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris J. Chiasson Sr. of Pass Christian.

The bride-to-be is a 1986 graduate of Belaire High School, Baton Rouge, and is a 1991 graduate of Louisiana State University with a bachelor's degree in accounting. She was a member of the National Honor Society, the Beta Club, Who's Who in high school, and the Accounting Society in College.

She is employed as an assistant manager with Mobile Lago Employees Credit Union.

The prospective groom is a 1990 graduate of Hancock North Central High School and attended Pearl River Community College. He is an occupational and physical therapist technician with Rehab One.

The wedding is planned for Saturday, October 28, 1995 at 6 p.m. at Sherwood Baptist Church in Baton Rouge.

Women inspirational program

The Women's Health Foundation and Slidell Memorial Hospital's Regional Women's Center will be hosting "Enjoying Your Life In Spite of It All," an educational program for women, on Thursday, Oct. 19 at Pinewood Country Club.

"This program is going to be education and fun," said Harriet White, director of the SMH

Regional Women's Center. "We hope it will help women improve their life by building up self-confidence and reduce daily stress."

The program starts with vision, glaucoma, hearing and blood pressure screenings at 10 a.m. and lunch at 11:30 a.m.

Lunch will be complemented with a fashion show by Casual

Corner and guest speaker Marion Wikholm.

The program costs $15 per person. Prepayment is required.

Tickets may be purchased by calling the SMH Regional Women's Center at 649-8600. Reservations must be made by Thursday, Oct. 12.

Bay artist display

The Long Beach Public Library is displaying the artwork of Bay St. Louis artist Elizabeth Schafer at the library during the month of October.

Although, Schafer has a bachelor's degree in oceanography, she was compelled to follow her heart's desires and visions as an artist. She studied art at the Brevard Art Center and Museum in Melbourne, Fla. and with various regional, national and international artists.

By applying thin layers of acrylic glazes, she builds areas of transparency and opacity. She chooses bold and striking colors and strong lines to provide movement throughout the painting.

She also creates exploratory relief sculptures using metal, wood, glass and paper.

Be the difference.
See the difference.

United Way of South Mississippi

Dear Friends To United Way,

Facts are stubborn things!

Our 1995 campaign theme is "Be the difference, see the difference." Since 1992, United Way of South Mississippi has seen a 50% increase in sponsor giving. Quite a difference! It has been possible only through your help.

Did you know...

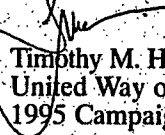

- Money you give through United Way goes directly to fund local agencies.
- Through United Way, you are helping the people in our community who are most in need.
- United Way makes sure the money you give is well spent by locally funded agencies.
- United Way keeps fundraising costs low by running an efficient, single-source appeal on behalf of 47 agencies.
- United Way actively works in our community to help solve today's critical problems from day care to drug abuse.
- Payroll deduction giving is the easiest way to give all year long.

Yes, facts are stubborn things. To keep up the momentum, we are asking for your continued assistance and ability to spread the message that United Way touches us all. For our agencies to succeed, please remember how much "You make the difference."

Ask others to "Be the difference!"

Thank you!

Sincerely,

Timothy M. Hinkley
United Way of South Mississippi
1995 Campaign Chairman

HOW CAN I GIVE THROUGH UNITED WAY?

Giving through United Way is simple. Either pledge a certain amount to be taken out of your paycheck on a regular basis or make your contribution at one time. You may allow the Fund Distribution Committee to allocate your contribution to the agencies which best serve our community through the Citizen Review Process. By choosing this method, you can be assured your dollars are reaching more people and doing the most good for your community. Or you may choose the Donor Choice program which allows you to designate which agencies will receive your contribution. If you choose to designate your contribution to a specific agency, we honor your choice and report your contribution to that agency for acknowledgment.

HOW CAN I BE THE DIFFERENCE?

Your United Way needs your help to continue supporting the agencies that make a difference in our community. We need individuals, businesses and corporations to contribute time, talent and gifts. Your generosity has kept us going for 30 years.

Volunteer Commitment

For Cedric, being a volunteer has a personal side.

Cedric Daniels often serves as a speaker for United Way of South Mississippi and he says that it's a pleasure because it is something he knows a lot about — as both a volunteer and a recipient. For Cedric, being a volunteer has a personal side. When he was a child, his family home in Gulfport was destroyed by a tornado. "My home was gone. Neighbors died. It was very devastating, but the United Way folks came and assisted us with basic things that we all sometimes take for granted, like something warm to drink," he said.

Cedric often takes time from his busy position at Mississippi Power as manager of customer accounts to share his story with various local groups and organizations. Over his many years as a faithful volunteer, he has touched many lives through his experience and uses it to help others. "My momma and daddy really impressed upon me to never forget the care and concern that was shown to us by the United Way and to return that favor when I could."

Cedric Daniels and Gary Michiels are both active volunteers serving throughout the years in many areas, including marketing and the annual campaign.

Gary Michiels is a pro when it comes to communicating — after all, that is his business.

And when it comes to spreading the word about the United Way, nobody does it better. Gary's involvement has been focused on working with the press for special projects as well as producing and directing this year's campaign video. His goal is to encourage others to make a commitment for a better community through his volunteer work.

His gift for giving of himself comes from both heart and home. "It all goes back to the basic value of service that my family instilled in me. They were always involved in helping others. And I feel spiritually, I have the obligation to contribute when I think I am capable of the task," he said.

Gary's commitment to United Way is long-term. "I would like to see it grow in terms of funding to allow the agencies to bring people together — the people in need with the people who care. That is a wonderful connection that's not always easy to make without an organization like United Way."

Rick Stewart's commitment to the United Way of South Mississippi goes beyond his annual pledge...

Rick gives unlimited time and talents to the organization. A Biloxi resident, he has taken the leadership approach in being a volunteer. Since he and his family relocated to the Coast in 1992, Rick has held many positions on United Way's board. Currently serving as president, he has a good view of where the organization has been and where it is going. "Volunteerism is the foundation on which we have built our efforts. We are seeing a new awareness of how United Way makes not only a better way of life for individuals in need, but a positive change for the community we live in," he said.

Rick Stewart has served in many positions with United Way, including president for 1995.

Rick, who works for South Central Bell, joined our team simply by being asked to participate. "I was recruited by the 1992 campaign chairman and my company has a legacy of being involved. I very much wanted to continue that legacy...it is certainly one way I can make a difference."

Lori Hutzler is no stranger to helping others in our community.

During her five-year involvement with the United Way of South Mississippi, she has positively affected the lives of many donors and recipients by organizing kick-off parties, handling media coverage, planning and participating in Day of Caring events, and organizing training sessions for volunteer members of the hospitality industry. It's only natural then that her job as public relations manager for the Isle of Capri Casino falls hand in hand with her involvement in the United Way through mainly a communication role. She, along with many other Isle of Capri employees, has brought a tremendous amount of support and talent to the United Way during the past few years. Lori genuinely is committed to the United Way, not only through behind-the-scenes work, but also by visiting the agencies to see first-hand how community funds and support have touched so many lives. "If contributors could just take a few moments to see how their donations have helped support needed programs and services for all walks of life, then they would truly understand the significance of their time and money," she says.

Volunteers from the Isle of Capri, Rich Westfall and Lori Hutzler, were instrumental in the production of the '95 Campaign film and other marketing tools.

United Way's Goal for 1995-96 is $1,500,000

WHAT IS UNITED WAY OF SOUTH MISSISSIPPI?

Changing lives of local people...that's what United Way of South Mississippi is all about. It's a community-based non-profit organization designed to help our community meet its social needs.

The network of United Way agencies reaches out and provides a comprehensive and cost-effective system of health and human care services for all members of our community.

Volunteers, local businesses, governments and organizations with committed individuals like you come together through the United Way of South Mississippi to solve problems that face our community. It's a system that works and is the key to lasting progress.

For 30 years, the United Way has been a proud partner with the people of South Mississippi funding programs that help people find affordable housing and child care, eat a nutritious meal, live independently at home, apply for jobs, develop skills, recover from substance abuse and build self-esteem. It is a partnership that works. Together, we can be the difference.

WHAT HAPPENS TO MY UNITED WAY CONTRIBUTION?

The dollars you so generously give through the United Way of South Mississippi are handled very carefully. More than 50 trained volunteers from various backgrounds review budget requests and make recommendations based on several important factors, such as the agency's budget, its financial management, the scope of services it provides, the number of people it helps, and how the agency meets the needs of our community.

The committee submits these recommendations to the Board of Directors—another group of community-minded volunteers—which makes the final decision on how your United Way contributions are distributed.

Volunteer Sandra Barker of Picayune, Mississippi, and a group of boys from St. Francis Academy take time to participate in the '95 Campaign film.

HOW MUCH OF MY UNITED WAY CONTRIBUTION GOES TOWARD OPERATING COSTS?

The United Way of South Mississippi is one of the most effective and economical ways of meeting community needs. It works hard to keep its fundraising costs low. The Board of Directors reviews all United Way budget items before adoption. They are also responsible for all costs associated with running our local United Way.

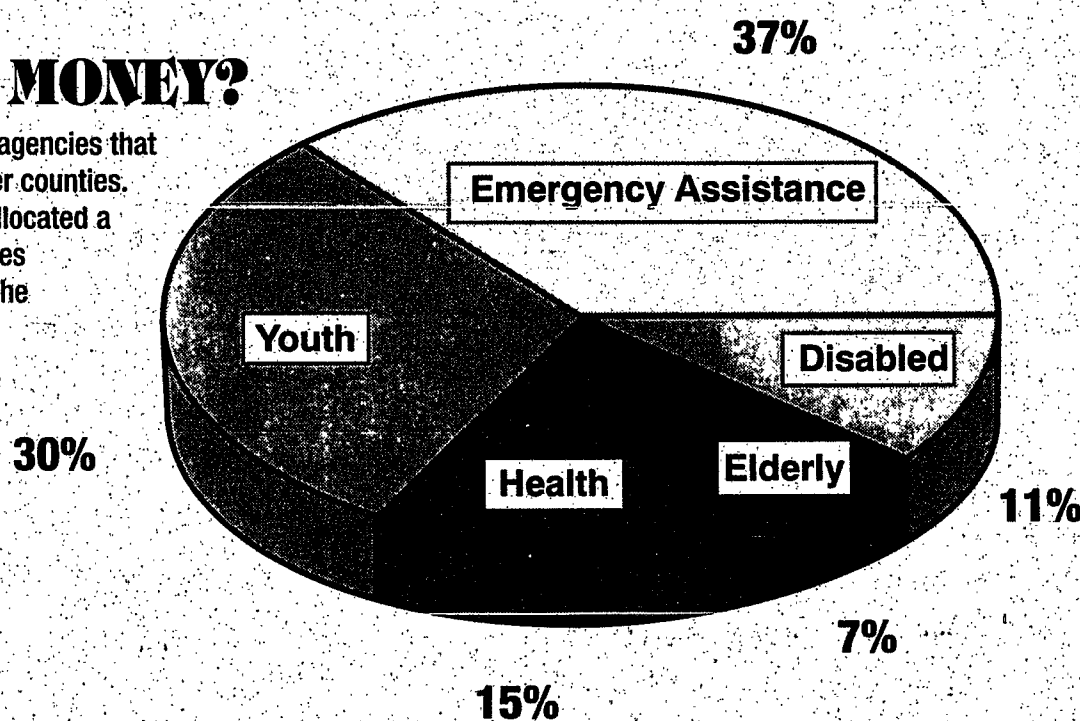

On average, only 15 cents from every dollar goes toward paying operating costs. The United Way is able to keep its costs down through the help of nearly 300 volunteers who use their time and talents to help the United Way and the people it serves.

Special Thanks To

The Sun Herald for providing a special feature and the many volunteers who make the United Way of South Mississippi possible.

WHO GETS THE MONEY?

Last year, your money went to help 48 agencies that serve Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River counties. The United Way of South Mississippi allocated a total of $853,040 to its member agencies serving the needy of the Gulf Coast in the following service areas:

See the difference you made in 1994...
